Nationalists Hit Idea Of Giving Up Tiny Isles

Truce Reports Rapped; U. S. Senators Voice Varying Opinions

TAIPEI, Formosa (P)—High Nationalist Chinese officials rejected beforehand today any proposal that might be made for Chiang Kai-shek's forces to abandon the tiny coastal islands of Quemoy and Matsu.

"Absurd — ridiculous — unthinkable — impossible," these officials said of Washington reports that the United States may seek a cease-fire which would mean giving up the islands to the Communists.

The officials declined to be named, but they insisted that the United States has at no time suggested, directly or indirectly, that those offshore islands be yielded to the Reds, as were the Tachens. There was no doubt, however, that there were forebodings even in top quarters as to the possible mission here of Asst. Secretary of State Walter Robertson and Adm. Arthur Radford, chairman of the U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Meanwhile, in Washington, Sen. Morse (D-Ore) said the Eisenhower administration is "trying to save face" in the Formosa Strait situation by "eliminating its implied commitment" to defend Quemoy and Matsu.

MORRIS said he will seek a vote in the Foreign Relations Committee next week on his resolution to limit to Formosa and the nearby Pescadores authority given President Eisenhower in the defense-Formosa resolution passed overwhelmingly by Congress in January.

The Formosa resolution, which Morse opposed, gave Eisenhower full backing to use U. S. military force to defend "closely related positions" deemed essential to the defense of Formosa. That would cover the coastal islands.

Sen. Knowland (R-Calif) loosed a thinly veiled swipe at Secretary of State Dulles last night in reiterating his contention that Quemoy and Matsu must be held.

Dulles has said this country would not defend the coastal islands as such but would watch closely for any Red Chinese attempt to use them as stepping stones to an attack on Formosa.

"There are some who believe that you can distinguish between a Communist assault on Quemoy and Matsu in and of themselves and Quemoy and Matsu as stepping stones toward Formosa," Knowland declared.

"What nonsense is this? When the assault is underway, are we to inquire as to whether their assault is only for the possession of these outer ramparts?"

The Californian, GOP Senate leader, has strongly urged a U.S. commitment to help defend the coastal islands, held by Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalists.

Without mentioning any names, Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Maine) said last night she is "weary of the militarists on the one hand, and politically motivated civilians on the other, trying to pressure the President" to adopt their views on Quemoy and Matsu.

Meanderings

By Wash Fayette

When Nathaniel Tway of Perry Township, discovered that foxes had carried off three of his hens Wednesday morning he decided it was time to do something about it. He took his shotgun, mounted his farm tractor and started fox hunting.

The mother fox spied Nathaniel when he was yet afar off; so she left her den and vanished into a nearby woods.

Not to be cheated of his fox hunt, Nathaniel drove closer to the den and saw a young fox with its head protruding from it.

It was soon a dead fox and another the same size also fell before the roaring shotgun.

Nathaniel collected the feet and brought them to Sheriff Orland Hays' office, for they are worth $2.50 a pair, the bounty on foxes which is paid by the county.

He figures he broke about even on the hen-fox transaction.

Spirited Montgomery Ward Control Showdown Nearing

CHICAGO (P)—Sewell L. Avery, financier, has been campaigning to take command of Ward's for eight months.

He contended that Avery has been dragging his feet during a high-speed economic cycle, Wolfson stated that he aims to expand the company and increase sales and profits.

Avery has declared that the company is in excellent shape. He asserted that Wolfson is attracted by Ward's liquid assets which total $327 million dollars in cash and government bonds.

Avery, a successful business executive for more than a half century, has been the boss of Montgomery Ward 24 years.

The battle arena for these men with the multimillion dollar muscles was the Medina Temple on Chicago's near North Side. There was room for 6,200 in the theater-style auditorium and basement. It could prove to be the largest gathering of its kind in American corporate history.

TOLEDO (P)—Arraignment on federal bank robbery charges is slated today for a recently-discharged airman and his woman companion.

Police and FBI men yesterday arrested the pair — Herbert C. Griffith, 25, and Mrs. Alice E. Green, 23—at the Lima home of Griffith's brother.

The two were sought after an unmasked man with a sawed-off shotgun held up the Bendena, Kan. State Bank last Wednesday and fled with $1,800.

The FBI said they recovered more than $1,500 from a suitcase in the couple's possession.

Griffith and Mrs. Green waived examination before U. S. Commissioner Quentin M. Derryberry in Lima yesterday, and entered no plea, since warrants had not arrived. They were unable to post bonds of $10,000 each. They will appear before another U. S. commissioner to enter pleas.

Griffith, identified as a Vaughnville native, was honorably discharged as a staff sergeant from the Air Force last Monday at Lincoln, Neb.

The FBI in Kansas City said Mrs. Green was formerly employed by a Lincoln finance company.

Rural Sunday Set

COLUMBUS (P)—Rural Life Sunday, set aside for emphasizing the meaning of Christianity in agricultural and country life, will be observed May 15 in Ohio.

CHICAGO (P)—There was rain in Atlantic and Pacific coastal areas today but generally fair weather prevailed elsewhere in the country.

The rain belt in the East extended from eastern sections of the Carolinas northeastward along the Atlantic coastal areas into southern New England. Falls in most places were light.

The wet weather continued over most of the Pacific coastal states during the night.

Polio Plan Backed

COLUMBUS (P)—A legislative proposal to guarantee that each Ohio child be inoculated with the Salk anti-polio vaccine got the endorsement yesterday of Ohio labor unions. The proposal was submitted by Rep. Charles J. Carney (D-Mahoning).

Polio Vaccine For All of Ohio Kids Is on Way

Central, Southeastern Ohio Youngsters Slated To Get First Shots

Indications today were that the polio vaccinations of the first and second graders in the city and county schools would be carried out on schedule after the state Department of Health announced that enough Salk vaccine to inoculate 75,330 children is now being distributed in the section of the state that includes Fayette County.

The revised schedule for vaccinations set up by the Health Department and Medical Association called for the first shots to be given to the boys and girls in the rural schools next Wednesday, April 27, and to the children of the city schools on Thursday.

Meanwhile, parents of around 1,200 youngsters and school authorities were waiting definite word concerning the inoculation plans here.

Four vaccinations centers have been set up for the county schools — at Bloomingburg, Jeffersonville, Good Hope and the Chaffin School — and three in the city at East-side, Sunnyside and Central schools. Pupils in the other schools are to be taken to one of the inoculation centers nearest their school.

(By The Associated Press)

A total of 256,500 doses of Salk polio vaccine will be shipped by air express today to Ohio under orders of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The vaccine, produced by the biological division of Wyeth Laboratories, is Ohio's entire supply for inoculation of school children in the first and second grades.

Shipments will go to four cities. The consignments are:

Cuyahoga Falls, Dr. Lewis Mueller, district health officer of the state department of health, 114,120 doses; Bowling Green, Dr. Thomas M. Mahoney, district health officer, 54,900; Dayton, Dr. Thomas H. Gardner, 65,880, and Cincinnati, Dr. Carl Wilzbach, city health commissioner, 21,600.

Distribution throughout Ohio will be made from these cities.

Earlier today, an official of the state health department said enough vaccine to inoculate 75,330 children is being distributed to 51 health jurisdictions in 33 central and southeastern Ohio counties.

Dr. Martin D. Keller, chief of the division of communicable diseases in the state health department, said the first shipment of the vaccine arrived without advance warning at Port Columbus last night.

He said the shipment containing 8,370 vials came from the Eli Lilly Co. of Indianapolis. Each vial contains 9 cc. of the vaccine.

Dr. Keller said the first shipment should be sufficient to cover all first and second grade school children in the designated areas.

The division chief said that starting of the immunization program is left to the discretion of individual health officers.

DR. KELLER said the central district's 19 counties were Fayette, Pickaway, Adams, Brown, Coshocton, Delaware, Madison, Morrow, Union, Fairfield, Pike, Ross, Franklin, Highland, Knox, Licking, Marion, Muskingum and Scioto.

The southeastern district's counties are Hocking, Athens, Belmont, Gallia, Guernsey, Jackson, Lawrence, Meigs, Monroe, Morgan, Noble, Perry, Vinton and Washington.

2 Accused Reds Win New Trials

NEW YORK (P)—Two secondary Communists convicted of conspiracy on testimony of turnabout witness Harvey Matusow won a new trial today.

Federal Judge Edward J. Dimock ordered the new trial for Alex Trachtenberg, 68, and George Charney, 47, both of New York.

Dimock held, however, that Matusow's testimony would not have affected the guilty verdict of their 11 co-defendants.

Collins Giving Ike Report On Viet Nam Political Crisis

WASHINGTON (P)—Gen. J. Lawton Collins, openly concerned about the political crisis in free Viet Nam, reported his findings to President Eisenhower today.

Against a backdrop of sharp differences between the United States and France on further support for the government of Premier Ngo Dinh Diem, the president's special ambassador arranged to call at the White House with Undersecretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr.

Collins said on his arrival yesterday from violence-flecked Saigon that the situation "is serious." Asked if the United States will continue to support Diem, he said quickly: "Our government is behind the legal government of Viet Nam."

Diem's resignation has been demanded by a united front of three armed religious sects—the Binh Xuyen, the Cao Dai and the Hoa Hao.

French authorities also were said to be urging Diem's immediate replacement by Emperor Bao Dai and appointment of another government leader.

However, Secretary of State Dulles was authoritatively reported to have turned down this suggestion in outspoken terms in a meeting Monday with French Ambassador Couve de Murville.

Nevertheless Paris reports have persisted that a Franco-American agreement has been reached on

Tom Murray Loses Case on Phone Device

Tom G. Murray of Washington C. H. has lost out in his attempt to prove to the Public Utilities Commission that he has a right to install his own robot telephone-answering device on his telephone.

In a lengthy decision, the commission ruled that the vending machine operator was out of bounds when he bought his own answering device instead of renting one from the Ohio Bell Telephone Co.

Murray installed a $400 "telemagnet" at his Devalon Road home two years ago to handle business calls in his absence. Ohio Bell cut off his telephone service when he refused to remove the telemagnet, but a court order restored service.

The commission in its ruling accepted Ohio Bell's argument that Murray's device was "inferior, not - well - designed equipment." There was no direct connection between Murray's device and his telephone. He plugged the telemagnet into an electrical outlet and set the telephone on top. When the telephone rang an arm raised the receiver slightly and recorded the incoming call.

Ohio Bell charges $12.50 a month for a company answering device, a $15 charge for installation, plus 15 per cent federal tax. Murray estimated he saved $140 a month by using an automatic machine instead of hiring someone to handle his calls.

The action filed by Murray was first heard by Judge John P. Case, who returned a finding in favor of Murray, restraining the telephone company from discontinuing service.

The case was then carried to the public utilities commission where it was heard months ago, and the decision just came through Friday, in favor of the telephone company.

Murray is represented by Reed M. Winegardner, and it was indicated Friday that the case may be carried to the Ohio Supreme Court for settlement.

Results of the action had been watched throughout the country as a new question had been raised, it seems, of interest to many telephone users and telephone companies.

Piercing Pains In Pants Pondered

SPRINGFIELD (P)—Recently a Springfield man presented himself to the Mercy Hospital staff here for a physical examination, telling the examining physician:

"I can't understand it, doctor; I've been suffering sharp, piercing pains."

As he loosened his clothes to prepare for the examination, a wasp flew out of his trousers.

He left the hospital immediately without identifying himself

Fayette County First In State To Receive Approval This Year

The staff in the county auditor's office in the Court House here feels somewhat elated over the result of its brisk efforts to make settlement and distribution of the recently collected personal property and classified taxes.

Notice was received from the state tax department that Fayette County was the first to send in its report and the first to receive the state draft of approval.

The May distribution is now being made from the auditor's office of these taxes. The personal tax in the recent collection ending the last of March amounted to $121,100 an increase of $75 over the same period last year. The classified tax collection amounted to $19,250, a gain of $2,080 over last year.

The distribution of the personal tax being made was as follows: To the state, $1,305.05, townships of the county $6,811.28; schools $75,118.19, of which the Washington C. H. schools received $18,687.36 and the rural and village schools $56,430.83; city and village corporations, Washington C. H. $7,043.69; the remaining small village corporation $493.16; county's general fund, $22,513; district TB Hospital fund $1,631.36; to the Fayette County Memorial Hospital original bond issue $1,957.63; Memorial Hospital new addition fund $2,936.44; county health fund $1,290.20.

On the distribution from the classified tax the county general fund receives $3,560.99; to the state $46.96; the city and village corporations of the county $10,142.05; public library fund $5,500.

Slayer of Sister Slated For Trial

BUCYRUS (P)—Frederick Spears, 17-year-old Galion boy, accused of slaying his sister, goes on trial next Tuesday before common pleas judges from Crawford, Huron and Henry counties.

Chief Justice Carl V. Weygant of the Ohio Supreme Court yesterday assigned Judges Ferd G. Behrens of Napoleon and Robert J. Vetter of Norwell to join Judge John P. Carroll of Bucyrus in hearing the second degree murder case.

Spears pleaded innocent by reason of insanity to a charge he strangled his 16-year-old sister, Patricia, last Dec. 31 after a pillow fight in their Galion home.

Danish Islanders Battling To Keep Their Only Doctor

THORSHAVN, Faeroe Islands (P)—Bordo islanders shined up harpoons, boathooks and shotguns today and mapped defense against fresh government efforts to remove their doctor.

Word from Copenhagen that 120 tough Danish riot police were headed by ship for Bordo, one of Denmark's sparsely settled Faeroe group in the North Atlantic between Iceland and the Shetlands, drew an angry reaction.

Radio orders went out to all trawlers and cutters owned by Bordo fishing companies to return to their home port, Klaksvig.

It was considered probable in Thorshavn that the Bordoers want to block the entrance to Klaksvig harbor with their vessels, riding at the hilt. "It appears to be a question of what foreign office do you believe," said one official.

Collins has been reported somewhat pessimistic about Diem's chances of working out an agreement with the rebellious armed sects who control the national police. He is said to have agreed with the French viewpoint that an open clash would plunge the country into civil war and perhaps allow the Communists to take over.

But State Department officials have contended that French authorities with 100,000 troops still in Viet Nam have not given full support to Diem.

These officials said it would do no good to change governments as long as the armed sects could exert pressure through control of the police.

Meanwhile, Vietnamese national troops began recouping the Binh Dinh area in Central Viet Nam, last zone south of the 17th parallel held by the Communist-led Vietminh.

Vietminh forces simultaneously moved into part of the Haiphong zone, the last French-controlled area in North Viet Nam.

The operations will be completed on May 16.

Both transfers started under the eyes of International Armistice Control Commission teams. The Geneva accords ending the Indochina war set the 17th parallel as the dividing line.

70 Million Yanks To Go On Fast Time

By The Associated Press

The sun won't be up as high as usual when millions of Americans go to work next week, but it'll stay up longer after they get home.

Reason for the change is daylight saving time, which goes into effect in the most populous sections of the nation at 2 a. m. Sunday. At that moment, it suddenly will become 3 a. m.

The household will have to get up and stir around an hour earlier, but they'll have an extra hour of sunshine when the day's done.

A national survey by the Elgin Observatory, Elgin, Ill., shows nearly 70 million Americans will go on the new schedule. The other 81 million will stick to standard time.

The shift will be made in New England, New York, New Jersey, Washington, D. C., Delaware, California and Nevada, virtually all of Maryland and Pennsylvania, most of Illinois, and northeastern parts of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky.

The South and the great central region of the United States will stay on regular time. Farmers say the cows don't come home until sundown, and there's no point in changing clocks if they can't change milking time.

Although daylight time customarily has ended the last Sunday in September, there are plans to extend it until the last Sunday in October this year in the North-eastern states.

anchor, to prevent the ship carrying the Danish police detachment from docking.

The islanders were dancing and singing in the streets to celebrate a victory yesterday over government officials who wanted to oust Dr. E. Halvorsen when they got the news the riot police expected to land Monday.

HUNDREDS OF angry islanders carried a party of officials back to their ship by force yesterday and cut the hawsers.

The officials had orders from the Faeroe government to remove Halvorsen from his office as a district doctor, a post he has kept unlawfully for two years.

The islanders, who want to keep the doctor revolted to protect him.

Indian Chief Hits Both Sides In Cold War

Both Reds, Anti-Reds Said Wrong, Leading World Into Conflict

BANDUNG, Indonesia (P)—Prime Minister Nehru assailed the North Atlantic Treaty Organization today as a protector of colonialism and urged his own neutralist policy upon other delegates to the 29-nation Asian-African conference.

"We should not take any sides in the cold war," declared the Indian leader, who has been trying to keep the first international conference of the Asian-African countries from bogging down in an ideological argument.

Nehru's blast came in response to a statement from Turkish delegate Fatih Rustu Zolli that "Turkey would not have survived (Russian expansion) and we would not be at this conference today" if she had not joined NATO.

"WE HAVE HEARD what Turkey has to say," Nehru responded. "That is one side of the case. The other case would be presented here. But India does not stand for either side. We do not approve the Communist or the anti-Communist powers. We think that they are both wrong and that their policies are leading us to the brink of war."

The Indian leader contended that the 14-nation organization headed by the United States, Britain and France is "one of the most powerful protectors of colonialism, though it was created for self-defense."

Nehru spoke strongly in favor of coexistence.

The conference ran into its first big deadlock today in a bitter argument over charges of "communist colonialism."

After a three-hour discussion, a nine-member subcommittee was appointed to try for agreement on a compromise resolution. Red China had proposed a general endorsement of the U.N. Charter of Human Rights. But another resolution, submitted by nine nations headed by Iran, would have the conference condemn colonialism "in any form." It specifically mentioned "international doctrines resorting to methods of force, infiltration and subversion."

The new discord was touched off yesterday by Ceylon's Premier Sir John Kotelawala, who challenged Red sincerity in proposing peaceful coexistence among nations of differing social systems.

DESCRIBING the Cominform (communism's international organization) as the main organ of "Soviet colonialism," Kotelawala declared the Reds should dissolve this body if they really want peaceful coexistence.

Kotelawala said today he did not want to "wreck" the conference but insisted, "I do want to discuss both sides of colonialism."

Delegates reported that Chou, at this morning's committee meeting, urged the group not to enter into arguments since they "would not be fruitful nor would agreement be possible." He said he had not come to Bandung to discuss ideology because that was not the meeting's purpose.

Lima Man Seeks To Avoid Summons

CLEVELAND (P)—Tommaso Argento of Lima was held in jail today while Federal Judge James C. Connell considered a writ of habeas corpus filed by the 59-year-old man's attorneys.

From the U. S. State Department the Italian government obtained a warrant for his extradition. The Italians want him on a 1922 murder charge.

Tommaso's attorneys argued an extradition treaty between Italy and the United States was not properly negotiated.

Coal Dealer Finally Takes A Vacation

EASTHAMPTON, Mass. (P)—George H. Halford, 68, a coal dealer in Easthampton 43 years, put an advertisement in the local paper yesterday, saying:

"I have waited a long time for a vacation. I wanted it before the rocking chair days got me."

He sold his business and then he left for a long vacation.

In 43 years, he said, he has taken only two one-week vacations.

Sportsmen Here Satisfied When Case Settled

Stream Pollution Argument Is Won Without Injunction

The Fayette County Fish and Game Association today was very happy about the outcome of a squabble over stream pollution it had with the Crites Canning Co. of New Holland last summer, Frank Boylan, the president said.

However, he added, that the association's members would remain on the lookout for any recurrence of the conditions that irked them so much last summer.

Boylan's comment followed an announcement by Charles A. Dambach, chief of the Ohio Division of Wildlife, that the Crites case had been settled out of court.

The fact that the case was settled, is viewed by Boylan and other Fish and Game Association members here as evidence that their complaints about pollution by the Crites Co. were justified.

On Sept. 1, 1953, Dambach said, a number of fish was killed as the result of wastes from the canning company being run into a small unnamed stream which eventually empties into the east branch of Paint Creek. It was in this latter stream where the fish were found.

The Crites firm, which was canning corn at the time of the fish killing, settled the claim in the amount of $300.

When the hassle was at fever heat, the Fish and Game Association was all prepared to file an injunction suit against the Crites Co. to compel it to cease polluting the stream.

A truce was effected on the eve of the schedule court action and the situation has remained at a sort of status quo ever since.

Boylan said he was not certain about exactly what was done with the $300 paid in settlement, but that he felt the situation had been cleared up. However, he added, the association would come right back with its injunction if the pollution was resumed.

Republicans Book Highway Parley

WASHINGTON (AP)—A conference on highway problems is booked today for a group of Ohio Republican and legislative leaders meeting with Rep. J. Harry McGregor (R-Ohio).

The congressman said yesterday that C. D. Curtis, federal commissioner of public roads, will attend the conference.

Polio Vaccine Here

the vaccine can be made available on an equal-to-everybody basis.

Invited to take part were representatives of government agencies, the medical and public health professions, the drug industry, congressional committees concerned and others.

Dr. Jonas E. Salk of the University of Pittsburgh, developer of the vaccine, arrived last night to attend the conference and to receive a citation from President Eisenhower. "I've just come to listen," Salk said of the conference.

He and Basil O'Connor, head of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, had a White House appointment to receive special presidential citations.

Secretary of Welfare Hobby called the conference, which was closed to the public and newsmen, in accordance with a directive from Eisenhower to survey and report to him on the best means of assuring equitable distribution of the paralysis preventive.

500 Youths Set Up Mock Government

COLUMBUS (AP)—About 500 "weekend legislators" swing into action today with more than a hundred bills up for consideration.

The "laws" passed will carry no authority, but will reflect the thinking of many Ohio high school students in their study of practical politics.

It's all part of the fourth annual Ohio Model Legislature, which opens a three-day session today. The project is sponsored by Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y groups.

The organizations' youth and government program starts with election of officials. District candidates have helped design 25 Senate bills and 79 House bills along with 15 resolutions.

Lt. Gov. John Brown presided over a joint session in House chambers this afternoon. After election of governor, clerk and chaplain, the Senate and House move into separate sessions.

The model legislators will be guests at the governor's banquet tonight at Ohio State University. Candidates for governor are Stephen Allen, Oak Hill; John Irons, Bellevue.

Chaplain for both houses: Nancy Brown, Chillicothe; Don Caprino, Marion; Janet Morris, New Boston.

Educating Masses Said Difficult Task

BURLINGTON, Vt. (AP)—Ernest Van Den Haag, professor of philosophy at New York University, says "the dispensing of knowledge becomes entirely wrong when we address ourselves to the great masses whose intellect is low."

He said last night that educating the large masses "destroys reverence" because "there is conflict between knowledge and the myth upon which society rests."

He said also that the rise in the number of college students since the war is creating "a decline in the quality of both the students and the faculty."

Realtors Meet Here From Three Counties

Realtors, bankers, representatives of home financing institutions and building contractors from Fayette, Clinton and Highland counties were told by Forrest P. Smith, the director of the Federal Housing Administration (FHA) for this 41-county district, that the FHA has guaranteed loans amounting to more than 20 billion dollars since it was founded in 1934 and that only 2-100th of 1 percent could be charged as loss.

Smith, who grew up in Washington C. H. and is a personal friend of many of the 41 in the group, also reviewed many of the changes that have been made in the FHA laws in the last few years.

The meeting, which was held in Grange Hall on West Elm Street, was a regular session of the Tri-County Real Estate Board. George Steele of Hillsboro, the president, presided and Ben Norris of Washington C. H. welcomed the guests and made the introductions.

Mac Dews introduced Smith, whom he has known for many years.

After Smith's talk on the FHA, its operations and functions, the meeting was thrown into a question and answer period. Taking part in this were H. T. Jamison, chief underwriter for the FHA, and Dallas Tobin, the agency's chief appraiser.

Before formal adjournment, Thomas Goldsberry of the Leesburg Bank was welcomed as an associate member of the Tri-County Real Estate Board.

International Gang Now

Painting Signs On City Streets

Street superintendent Clyde Smith and his crew have been working on important street painting as the weather permits.

Already they have repainted the 25 and 35 miles an hour signs on some of the main streets where violations of the speed laws have been most prevalent.

The school signs also have been repainted to lessen danger to children during the remainder of the school term.

Important crosswalks at the schools also have been painted, and as weather permits, the crew will extend the work on Court Street. First the center and cross walk line are to be repainted and then the parking lines throughout the business area will be done.

Most of the lines have been dimmed through the months of use and winter weather.

The Nation Today

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — The American people and the Red Chinese have one thing in common: Both are left guessing whether the Eisenhower administration intends to defend the Matsu and Quemoy Islands, close to the Red China coast.

The administration itself is guessing, so far as is publicly known. All it has said is vague. Meanwhile, the American public gets repeated jolts from developing events, as if bumping into a short-circuit.

There have been several jolts in recent weeks. They were startling when they happened.

Chiang Kai-shek, the American ally, claims Matsu and Quemoy and has troops on them. His main forces are on Formosa. The United States, by treaty with Chiang, is pledged to defend Formosa but not Matsu and Quemoy.

In a special message to Congress Jan. 24 President Eisenhower asked Congress for specific authority to defend Formosa and closely related localities. Those localities could mean Matsu and Quemoy, but Eisenhower didn't say so.

He said such authority from Congress—which Congress gave him quickly—would reduce the possibility that the Red Chinese might misjudge the U.S. "purpose" and "precipitate a major crisis."

What he intended to do about Quemoy and Matsu, being vague in the message, could only leave the Chinese guessing. The President still hasn't said anything definite about the islands.

If all that the administration has said about them could be boiled down it would be this: The President will decide on fighting for Quemoy and Matsu if the Reds attack them and he thinks then Formosa is endangered.

A few weeks ago Adm. Robert B. Carney was quoted by some newsmen, after an off-the-record dinner with him, as expecting an attack on Quemoy and Matsu by April 15. A short time later the President said he had no such information.

To add to the confusion, Carney said he hadn't been quoted correctly. And newsmen who had been at the dinner didn't agree on just what he said.

Last Sunday, after a visit with Eisenhower, Secretary of State Dulles told newsmen that "only during the last few days" this government had learned of an "intense" Chinese airpower buildup opposite Formosa.

On Wednesday the Defense Department announced, "in view of the tense situation" in the Formosa area, Adm. Arthur W. Radford and Walter S. Robertson, assistant secretary of state, would fly to Formosa. They left within two hours.

At almost the same time Dulles told newsmen "no crisis is involved" and that the two men were going to Formosa for the "normal maintenance of contact in a situation that is admittedly serious."

Yesterday Sen. George (D-Ga), chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, the one man outside the administration most likely to know the purpose of the Radford-Robertson trip, said he thought the men were going to Formosa to get a first-hand view of the situation.

The President, if he has made up his mind about Matsu and Quemoy, may be keeping it quiet so he can negotiate with the Red Chinese for the islands in return for a cease-fire in the Formosa area. But it's not certain he's made up his mind.

Fayette To Be Represented at Refuse Clinic

Meeting at Chillicothe Tuesday Is Open To General Public

In a meeting to be held at the Elks Hall in Chillicothe next Tuesday, April 26, Fayette County Health Department officials and possibly some representatives of the municipal government of Washington, C. H., as well as of other organizations here, will attend an important refuse clinic.

Dr. N. M. Dyer, Fayette County's health department and Glen Allen executive secretary of the Washington Chamber of Commerce have announced their intention of being present. Allen is on the program for a talk on the refuse problem during the morning session.

The general program will cover many subjects on the significant question before the meeting which is, "has the garbage and refuse problem been solved in your community?"

Village and county groups from this part of the state will take part in the conference program, as well as city groups. Those present will be told how various communities have met and solved the general problem involved and how their methods are financed.

Films and picture slides will be shown dealing with some of the difficulties involved and how they can be handled. There will be demonstrations of operation of sanitary landfills, also equipment exhibits.

Members of civic organizations and the general public will be welcome to attend, according to announcement of those in charge. Discussions will offer all individuals opportunity to participate and to ask for advice. The sessions start at 10 A. M. and will continue until late afternoon except for the noon lunch hour.

State University Fund Cuts Hit

COLUMBUS (AP)—Budget cuts of state-supported universities threaten to cheapen the American education system, two university presidents said yesterday.

The educators protested an $11 million cut in budgets of six state supported universities. They had asked $76,532,306 and received $65,763,826 in budget allowance.

John C. Baker, president of Ohio University, said European universities, with the assurance of proper financing, were attracting quality students away from America. Baker and Dr. Howard L. Bevis, president of Ohio State University, warned the House Finance Committee that budget cuts may jeopardize present educational levels and seriously retard the teacher-training program.

Record Bankruptcy Rate Predicted For Next Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Appropriations Committee said today the coming fiscal year may see the "highest number of bankruptcies recorded in the history of the country."

It made the observation, with out elaboration, in sending to the House a $450,398,227 appropriations bill to finance the State Department, the Justice Department, the federal judiciary and the U. S. Information Agency for the bookkeeping year starting July 1.

During the current fiscal year, the committee said, approximately 65,000 bankruptcy cases will be filed, with an increase to 75,000 expected next year.

It approved the $1,151,400 requested for salaries of bankruptcy referees and $1,650,000 for referees' expenses. This is $172,375 more than Congress appropriated for the same work this year.

The committee's over-all action represented a cut of approximately 7 per cent in presidential money requests for the agencies to be financed by the bill.

By agencies, here's how the committee allotted the money:

	Asked	Allotted
State	147,267,197	126,759,977
Justice	201,485,000	197,525,000
USIA	88,500,000	80,500,000
Refugee	16,000,000	16,000,000

In a formal report accompanying the bill, the committee made no reference to the current controversy over removal of Edward J. Corsi from his State Department post as special assistant handling refugee and immigration matters.

Its only notable criticism of any agency was directed at the USIA,

"more diplomats who represent all races."

Mrs. James D. Wyker, president of United Church Women, returning by air yesterday from Germany, said: "Such action would immeasurably strengthen our foreign policy and win more friends for the United States." Mrs. Wyker heads a group of 10 million Protestant women.

Mac Dews Team Now Taking Form

The Mac Dews club of the Southwestern Ohio Baseball League is beginning to take shape, the Junior Dews said.

At the initial practice session several of last year's mainstays turned out including Third Baseman Howard Boggs and Center Fielder Howard Gardner Jr.

Dews said Clyde Woodruff, a newcomer to team, was looking good behind the plate. The team was hit hard by the draft. Pitcher Tubby Dunn, Second Baseman Bob Bishop and Shortstop Wayne Baird are now in service.

The pitching staff probably will not be at its best until school lets out for the summer. That's when Eddie Robinette will become eligible to throw the apple for Dews. Rodger Mickle will be eligible to play second base then too.

Dews said several positions — both in the infield and outfield — are still wide open. Boys and men interested in playing this summer should call Dews either at home (35951) or office (56011) as soon as possible.

Dews has obtained the Bloomingburg Lions Club diamond for his team's home field each Sunday.

Most of the teams in the league will hold practice sessions Sunday afternoon. The opening games will be played the following Sunday, May 1.

Your School Report Card

By W. A. SMITH
(City School Superintendent)

One of the Pen Pals previously referred to in the Report Card has recently written to Judy K. Jamison, a 6th grader at Central School. This Pen Pal lives in South Hobart, Tasmania, Australia, and some of the things about which she wrote are quite interesting.

We are quoting parts of her letter here:

"I am fourteen years of age and I am in my 4th year at the Hobart High School.

"Our city has 90,000 people, but it is very small compared to the cities in America. Our school is the largest in Australia. We have 880 pupils.

"Do you have TV? We don't because TV has not been brought to Australia yet. Do you go to the pictures? Have you seen any of the film stars? I do not go to pictures very much, but I like to see Jane Powell and Mario Lanza.

"We have a regatta or carnival each year where everyone goes to have a good time. There are all kinds of entertainments: Round-a-Bank, side shows, stalls, and water events."

Letters similar to this give the students a better insight into the customs, thoughts, and recreation of students of a similar age in foreign countries.

Judy has written to this girl and will be answering her letter and giving her views about the city of Washington C. H. and surrounding area.

The Citizenship Clubs of Central

School sing a song which may be of interest to our reader. Following are the contents:

I am proud of my town —
Is my town proud of me?
What she needs is citizens
Trained in loyalty.
When we work, when we play,
With our fellowmen,
Good citizens we will be;
Then I'll be proud, be proud of Washington,
And I'll make her proud of me.

Contractor Books Paving Speed Test

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) — A test to see how fast a contractor can pave the equivalent of a city block with asphalt will be one of the attractions at the dedication of the Asphalt Institute's new headquarters here.

The Corson-Gruman Co. of Washington will make the attempt May 5. It will have two asphalt spreaders, two rollers, and 14 eight-ton trucks ready to spread asphalt in a 1½-inch layer over a street in front of the new building on the University of Maryland campus.

The company has said it expects to pave it in less than an hour.

No Opposition To This National Acclaim

Most certainly there will be no muttered opposition to the general agreement that one man who should receive enthusiastic nation-wide recognition is Dr. J. E. Salk who is responsible for the new polio vaccine which seems likely to put and end to the polio scourge.

It is said that under the direct order of President Eisenhower, the federal government and especially the department of health, education and welfare, will cooperate fully in seeing to it that the children of America, doubtless also the rest of the world, shall quickly obtain advantage of this miraculous new vaccine for prevention of poliomyelitis.

Here is a gigantic new step in man's effort to conquer disease. It ranks with the steps which practically have stopped the threats of many formerly nation-wide diseases which now are no longer regarded as dangerous under new cures established.

Those of us who grew up on the thrilling stories of "Men Against Death" and

"Microbe Hunters" by Dr. Paul de Kruif, feel a warm surge of affection for Dr. Jonas E. Salk. He is a worthy addition to the fellowship of brilliant research scientists in the fight against disease and human suffering.

Congressional action to award a special Medal to Dr. Salk is only one of the many tributes of our deep regard for the work he has done and a tribute, too, to the hundreds of unknown men and women whose aid, encouragement, trials and errors in the same field of polio research contributed to this modern miracle.

Far greater than this recognition is the rich reward which the doctor will receive in the daily prayers of every mother, father, and grandparent throughout the world who may rest a little easier each day in the confidence that one daily fear may be pushed aside in this vale of tears.

To paraphrase the Latin which lingers from long ago, "Those who are not about to die, salute you, Dr. Salk."

Ernie Pyle Would Be Proud

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP)—Ernie Pyle died on a far Pacific isle 10 years ago this week, as the war he hated was drawing to an end.

He now lies buried in a U.S. military cemetery in Hawaii among the servicemen whose story he told with simple eloquence. But in another sense Ernie didn't stay overseas. He is back home here forever on the campus of Indiana University, where in student days he first dreamed of winning newspaper fame.

Certainly his spirit is enshrined here. Ernie remains a living symbol to hundreds of fledgling young newspaper men and women who are bolstered in both heart and hope by the example of his career.

Ernie never was graduated by his alma mater. He quit during his senior year to go to work. Some of the oldtimers here say he left because of a broken romance with a red-haired girl. Others say, "No, it was just because he was Ernie, already restless to be on his way."

Once Pyle did leave the campus in January, 1923, he stayed away for 21 years. He loved the university but said he wanted to remember it as he had known it in his youth. He came back only once in his lifetime—to take an honorary degree in 1944. A few months later he was killed by a sniper's bullet on Ie Shima.

But today the personality of the shy, brooding farmboy who became the greatest battle reporter of his generation dominates his old school.

A $500,000 journalism building has been named in his honor. A plaque commemorating his achievements has been set up by Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalistic fraternity.

In the lounge of Ernie Pyle Hall are collected a number of mementoes of the correspondent. They include the entrenching tool he used to dig his own foxholes, a beat-up dress cap he wore in London, his battered portable typewriter, his medals, and one of the last columns he wrote before his death.

"The students are quite proud of the Pyle tradition," said John E. Stempel, chairman of the journalism department, who himself was a friend and classmate of Ernie's. "They asked that the building be named after him."

"We still have the desk Ernie used when he was editor of the paper. It is being reglued right now, so it will last for another 30 or 50 years."

A memorial fund of more than $50,000 raised by newspaper admirers has provided some 60 Ernie Pyle journalism scholarships during the postwar years. Many of them went to war veterans, and Stempel said most of the winners have gone on and done well in newspaper work.

"Ernie himself had a good academic record while he was in school," he remarked.

Standing before the glass case that holds his typewriter, the same typewriter I had so often seen Ernie beat out his copy on during the war years, I had a haunted feeling, as if the man himself were invisibly present.

Certainly if he could know what has been done here in his name, I'm sure Ernie Pyle couldn't ask for a happier memorial. He was a man of unending small kindnesses in his lifetime. Now a decade after his death he remains an inspiration and a concrete help to struggling youngsters learning the writing craft he himself enabled.

Laff-A-Day

"Aw, come out of it—I've brought you flowers before!"

Diet and Health

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Unlike bronchitis or acute bronchitis which usually runs its course in about two weeks, chronic bronchitis will only get worse if left untreated. This might leave the victim a semi-invalid.

Subject to Bronchitis
Occasionally encountered in children, it is a common affliction in those of you over 40. You can inherit a tendency to contract chronic bronchitis.

Several things tend to lead to chronic bronchitis. You probably are more likely to be stricken if you are fat, have asthma, pneumonia, arteriosclerosis or curvature of the spine. Heavy smokers also are frequent victims.

Chronic bronchitis is especially dangerous to elderly persons because it weakens their resistance to the killing diseases. Children come down with one coughing cold after another if they are afflicted with this disease. Frequently their school and play life is so disrupted they can't grow up properly.

So distressing is chronic bronchitis that just about everything has been tried to cure it. Since it usually occurs in cold damp climates, you might get relief by moving to a warm, dry climate. If such a move is impossible maybe a change in jobs will help you. A warm, dry occupation might bring considerable relief.

No Smoking or Alcohol
Don't smoke and don't drink

any alcohol if you've got chronic bronchitis. Your doctor can give you drugs which dilate the bronchi, enabling pus and mucus to be expelled freely.

Maybe he'll give you codeine to reduce your coughing during the night. Ephedrine tablets usually relieve the bronchial spasm. Sometimes, however, it is necessary to operate to remove a hopelessly clogged part of the lung or to cut a hole in the windpipe to get the material out.

Penicillin a Great Aid

With development of antibiotics, these extreme measures are used less frequently. Penicillin is a great aid because it strikes at many more bacteria than the previously used sulfa drugs. And within the past few years other broad-range antibiotics have been developed which help keep bronchial infections in check through the simple procedure of swallowing capsules.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

K. L.: What causes bad breath within an hour after eating and a white coating on my tongue, and what could I do for this condition? My teeth are perfect.

Answer: Bad odor of the breath may come from several things, such as infected teeth, bad tonsils or adenoids, or infection of the nose or nasal sinuses. A thorough examination should be made to determine the cause. When this is found, the condition can be quickly cleared up.

Adams Chided By Sparkman On News Leak

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.) said today he has concluded Sherman Adams "simply cannot back up" an implication that leaks of government documents are traceable to holdovers from Democratic administrations.

Sparkman said he has waited more than two weeks for Adams, President Eisenhower's chief assistant, to reply to his request that Adams "say definitely" whether leaks were traced to Democrats.

Adams wrote Sparkman early this month he was "striving" to meet the "special problem of leaks that arises when a new administration is obliged to operate largely with personnel held over from previous administrations."

Sparkman wrote back asking Adams to name the persons who supplied the Yalta papers to the New York Times ahead of their general release and two other government documents to the Wall Street Journal if Adams didn't want to disclose the names. Sparkman wrote, "I wonder if you are willing to say definitely that they are Democrats."

Two days ago Secretary of State Dulles named Asst. Secretary Carl W. McCord, hired by Dulles, as the man who gave the Yalta papers to the New York Times.

Hawaii Sending Orchids To College

DELAWARE (AP)—Classmates of Ohio Wesleyan freshman Kenneth Hazemoto sent him home for Christmas, and his Hawaiian family and friends are sending back their thanks—with flowers.

The orchids, about 200 pounds of them, are being flown in from Honolulu.

Hazemoto, 20, said the orchids are mainly intended for a Beta Sigma Tau fraternity dance Saturday night.

Ike Seen Forced To Run Again

WASHINGTON — War or no war between now and the presidential election in November, 1956, Republican political strategists are convinced that President Eisenhower can be reelected against anybody the Democrats may name as his opponent. Their belief is based on a confidential canvas of representative leaders throughout the country by National Chairman Leonard W. Hall and congressional pollsters on Capitol Hill.

Eisenhower will fare as well or better than he did in 1952, according to this roundup, if he can avoid an armed conflict without further appeasement of Russia.

A war precipitated by a decision to defend the Quemoy and Matsu Islands, it is admitted, would be extremely unpopular. Nevertheless, once the United States is engaged in a clash with Red China, no matter the cause of the encounter, the survey suggests that Ike's political stock would rise.

Without war, he would campaign as keeper of the peace, as against the GOPsters argument that our three costliest conflicts occurred on "Democratic Time." With war on our hands, he would be hailed—by Republican orators, that is—as the right man in the right place at the right time.

RUN AGAIN — The We-want-Ike-again faction of the Republican party—and that takes in almost everybody, including the right wing represented by Senators McCarthy, Bridges and Dirksen—rejoice over Chief Justice Earl Warren's public and vigorous renunciation of any presidential ambitions. They figure that it will force Eisenhower, no matter how reluctant he may be, to run again.

So long as the eminent and popular Californian was a prospect, there was a chance that the President might bow out after a single term. As a progressive and liberal figure—too progressive and too liberal, some GOPsters believe—Warren could probably win as the 1956 candidate.

TWIST—A generally unnoted but extremely significant political twist is the current meticulous behavior of the pro-McCarthy and pro-Chiang Kai-shek bloc on Capitol Hill. Despite their distaste for certain Eisenhower-Dulles policies, they have fallen behind the President in his conduct of foreign affairs. They are back on the regular reservation.

Warren's renunciation, oddly, contributed to their conversion. With the Californian out of the political picture, it becomes certain that Ike will be the 1956 nominee. So, they cannot afford to bicker with and oppose the man for whom they will ask votes only 18 months from now, especially as foreign policy may be an issue next year.

SUPPORT—Moreover, two of the McCarthy men must face the voters under possibly troublesome conditions, and will need Ike's full and generous support. Although Styles Bridges received the largest majority ever given a United States senator in his last political appearance, New Hampshire has shown Democratic tendencies now and then. Last year, such a GOP Gibraltar as Maine elected a Democratic governor. Bridges must run again next November. He will need Ike.

Sen. Everett McKinley Dirksen of Illinois, who sided with McCarthy invariably during the Schine-Cohn inquiry, will want White House help when he faces the voters in 1956. Ike cannot and will not urge Dirksen's reelection unless "Dirk" behaves in the meantime. Recent Democratic victories in Chicago and Michigan indicate that the "boy orator" with a bryanesque flair may also need presidential reinforcement.

NO SPLIT—McCarthy himself has hardly "made" the front page since he lost the chairmanship of the Senate Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations, which provided him with a publicity pulpit. Several of his sturdiest House supporters were shelved by the voters in the 1954 congressional elections.

As a result of political acrobatics, National Chairman Hall believes that the threatened split in Republican ranks will not materialize. In fact, he predicts that, "We will be more united than the Democrats, with their Harriman-Lehman and George-Byrd factions."

Sohio Accused Of Unfair Practice

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Toledo gas station operator says the Standard Oil Co. of Ohio has a "stranglehold" on independent station owners in the state through control of gas prices.

Harold Grindie testified yesterday before a House committee probing complaints that the major oil firms control independent.

Grindie said Sohio operates 375 retail stations in Ohio, and independent stations are forced to meet company retail prices to keep in business.

He told the committee that Sohio "exercises price leadership at the wholesale dealer-tank wagon level controlling the price at which we retailers must buy gasoline, thus giving the company a stranglehold on prices."

Montgomery Ward Control Fight Nearing

CHICAGO (AP)—The eyes of American business will be focused tomorrow on a structure that looks like an old-world mosque.

It's the Medinah Temple at 600
N. Wabash Ave., a four-story
brick building which will house
the annual meeting of Montgomery Ward & Co. stockholders.
Their chief business will be to decide whether the $721 million firm will remain under the control of Sewell L. Avery or shift to the command of Louis E. Wolfson.

Polls will be opened in the rear of the house. Most of the 68,000 stockholders have mailed in their proxies. But those who want to vote in person or cast a ballot
that will supersede a previously mailed proxy will walk to a parlor
containing eight voting tables.

The next item on the program is "questions and discussions."

But the place on the agenda of this item already has drawn a protest from Wolfson.

He has demanded "free and open discussion before the votes
are cast."

John Barr, Ward vice president
and secretary, rejoined:

"There will be a full opportunity for asking any questions. No stockholder will be forced to vote
before he's ready to vote."

At the end of the session, the meeting will be adjourned, probably for three weeks. Barr estimated it would take that long to check and count the ballots.

Representatives of both sides
will watch the proceedings.

Chicago is an Indian word meaning "wild onion place", one of hundreds of Indian names for U. S. cities, says the National Geographic Society.

THE WONDERFUL SHIP

She'll sail with the best of them, because into her fashioning have gone the eager hands of a small boy and the gentle, experienced touch of an old man. Across bright blue water her miniature sails will billow clean and white, and into the eyes of these two will steal a new light of pleasure.

There has been guidance in the making of this boat, the loving guidance of one who has weathered life's storms and gained from them the comfort of experience. And the boy, sensing this experience, is happy in a childlike confidence that this ship... this wonderful ship
... can never sink.

It may be that on some brave voyage the little boat will meet disaster, and this lad will learn that material possessions so seldom last.
He is also learning to find faith in a ship that is unsinkable. That ship is the Church... and it will carry him through calm seas and storms throughout the voyage of life. Every child should learn early to anchor his life to the Church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship.
It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Buffet Supper Is Enjoyed By Garden Club

A buffet supper at the home of Mrs. Reuben French, Thursday evening preceded the regular meeting of the Busy Bee Garden Club.

Nineteen members and two guests were seated at small tables centered with spring flowers for a congenial supper hour.

Mrs. Glen H. Brock, president, presided over the business session and opened with the reading of a poem, "Whoever Makes A Garden."

The usual reports were heard and approved and a card of thanks was read from Mrs. Ada Gault, a member, for flowers sent during her recent illness.

A committee composed of Mrs. Ray Shoemaker, Mrs. Jess Crago, Mrs. Ancil Creamer and Mrs. John Sheeley was appointed to make plans for an open meeting of the club June 16.

Roll call was responded to with quotations from the book "The Web of Life" and later Mrs. French reviewed the book which was written by John H. Storer.

The meeting was closed with the club prayer and films on scenes at Mt. Vernon, the jungles at Saratoga, Florida, the cherry blossoms at Washington D. C. tulip beds at Hershey, Pennsylvania, and flower arrangements.

Guests included were Miss Maude Routson and Mrs. Willis French.

Club Members Enjoy Annual Surprise Event

Twenty-six members of the Conner Farm Woman's Club, enjoyed their annual "Surprise Meeting" on Thursday with Mrs. Dora Mark, Mrs. Harold Mark, Mrs. Emerson Marting, Mrs. Walter Sollars, Mrs. Earl Anderson and Mrs. Dale Wilson as hostesses.

The members assembled at the Farm Bureau Auditorium at 11:30 A. M. and were greeted by the hostesses who announced that they would motor to the Pickaway Arm's Tea Room for a delicious one o'clock luncheon.

Tables seating the group for a delightful hour were centered with beautiful arrangements of spring flowers and following the luncheon hour Mrs. Dale Wilson, club president, conducted the brief business session, which opened with the repeating of the club creed, led by Mrs. Joe Palmer.

The reports of standing committee were heard and roll call was responded to with plans for the month of April.

Mrs. Orville Bush announced that the April meeting of the Concord Home Demonstration Club would be held at the home of Mrs. Maurice Sollars, on Thursday, April 28 10:30 A. M. and also the sewing date at Memorial Hospital, on Tuesday, April 26 at 1:30 P. M.

In addition to the hostesses, members enjoying the delightful event were: Mrs. Job Burris, Mrs. Joe Palmer, Mrs. Orville Bush, Mrs. Dale Wilson, Mrs. Russell Lanman, Mrs. Maurice Sollars, Mrs. Ford Ervin, Mrs. Heber Deer, Mrs. Kenneth Bush, Mrs. Robert Case, Mrs. Ralph Nisley, Mrs. Edgar Wilson, Mrs. Ada Wilson, Mrs. Nelson Case, Mrs. Jean Nisley, Mrs. Marvin Waddle, Mrs. Edwin Buck, Mrs. Carlton Belt, Mrs. Lorain Morter, and Mrs. Orville Waddle.

Church Society Holds Meeting At Willis Home

Mrs. Thomas N. Willis was hostess to members of the Women's Christian Circle of the South Side Church of Christ, Thursday evening for the regular April meeting. Prayer by Mrs. Guy Brooks, opened meeting and devotions were led by Mrs. John G. Jordan, who used as her theme, "Time" for an interesting talk which included poetry and closed with Scripture reading.

Mrs. Willis, vice president, conducted the business session which included plans for the Mother-Daughter banquet at the church, Friday May 6, and Mrs. Carey Bock was appointed as general chairman of the event.

The meeting was adjourned and refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Norman Kinzer, Mrs. Ned Kinzer, and Mrs. John Frederich.

Junior DAR Plans Meeting

The Martha Washington Committee of DAR will meet Monday evening, April 25 at the home of Mrs. Ray French on the Circleville Road.

A most interesting program has been planned by the chairman, Mrs. Dwight Duff, and the film "The Years To Come" will be a special feature.

This film is rated one of the best to be released by the U. S. Department of Agriculture on Conservation, in keeping with the theme of the meeting and has been highly recommended by National DAR.

A short business meeting will be presided over by the chairman, Mrs. Willard Bitzer, and election of officers for the coming year will be held.

A discussion on the "May Tour" will be held and plans will be outlined by the committee. Assisting Mrs. French in the hospitalities will be Mrs. J. H. Williams and Mrs. John Leland.

Little Girl One Year Old Today

This darling little girl is Susan Jessica Small, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Small (nee Helen Worrell) of Chula Vista, California.

Garden Club Members Meet With Mrs. Denen

The April meeting of the Old Trails Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. Eugene Denen who had as assisting hostess, Mrs. Debert Dorn and Mrs. Wayne Kelly.

The president, Mrs. Reynold Slaughter Sr. presided over the meeting and appointed a committee to arrange exhibits for the Spring Flower Show at London, May 4, under the theme, "Spring Symphony."

Mrs. Robert L. Waller, gave an interesting talk on "Wild Flowers" in which she pointed out that it is permissible to transplant wild flowers in yards providing place is comparable to that in the wooded areas, and in transplanting wild flowers do not dig promiscuously being careful to get ample clumps to insure growth.

She mentioned the trailing arbutus as the most beautiful woods plant but cannot be transplanted, and fall is the correct time to transplant wild flowers being careful to observe root growth. No fertilizer is to be used in moving these plants only mulch and since they start growth late in the spring be careful not to disturb the plants early.

She stated that the wild orchid or lady slipper may be started from seed in outside container to insure the freezing and thawing and spoke of wood fern, the growth, and care in transplanting.

In closing Mrs. Waller gave other important instructions for the growth of other wild flowers.

Mrs. Reynold Slaughter Jr. showed slides from the collection of Mrs. Reuben French, of Jeffersonville which included scenes taken in Ohio of her own lawn and those taken in Florida, Pennsylvania and Detroit, Michigan.

At the close of the meeting the hostesses served punch and the accompanying delicacies.

Newcomers Club Bridge Group Enjoys Party

The bridge group of Newcomers Club met informally at the home of Mrs. Charles Harris who had as her assisting hostess, Mrs. Jack Montgomery.

Two tables of bridge were at play during the afternoon session and at the conclusion of the progressions light refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Members present were Mrs. George Owen, Mrs. Hugh Hilty, Mrs. Jerry Grundies, Mrs. La Verne Haugan, Mrs. Harold Allen, and Mrs. James Rainey.

U. S. margarine production totaled 426 million pounds in 1942 and rose to about 1,364 million pounds in 1954.

Personals

Einstein Credited 'Faith' For Helping In Successes

Editor's Note: Following is the last in a series of three articles giving the background of the late Dr. Albert Einstein, world-acclaimed scientist.

By FRANCES LEWINE
PRINCETON, N. J. (AP)—Albert Einstein, intellectual adventurer, said he had a "kind of faith that helped me through my whole life—not to become hopeless in the great difficulties of investigation."

This man, who died Monday, overturned the most traditional notions of physics.

He was the son of middle class South German Jews. From his father, Hermann, an electrical engineer, he first learned about science. His mother, Pauline Koch, gave him his love of music and art.

Einstein didn't speak a word until he was 3 years old, but by the time he was 14 he had taught himself algebra, analytical geometry and integral and differential calculus. None of this had yet been taught him in school. He was also deeply interested in philosophy.

He intended to follow his father's profession and took entrance examinations at the Polytechnic Academy in Zurich, Switzerland. His knowledge and understanding of mathematics and physics amazed his professors.

The young scientist, however, was mainly occupied with physics. He said he early learned to study only what led to the fundamentals and "to turn aside from everything else."

Einstein, who always was passionately proud of his Jewish cultural and spiritual traditions, was married in 1903 at the age of 24 to a Serbian Catholic, Mileva Marie, whom he met in a mathematics class. They had two sons, Hans Albert, born in 1904, and Edward, born in 1909.

Hans became a professor of hydraulics at the University of California and a consultant on soil erosion for the U. S. government. Edward remained in Zurich, and little was known here of his activities.

TODAY'S GARDEN-GRAPH

Give Potatoes Helping Hand

By DEAN HALLIDAY
Distributed by Central Press Association

WHETHER you plant potatoes by the hill or trench method, give them a hand in getting started. Care and cultivation are essential for a good crop.

Start with good seed potatoes. Discard seed potatoes which have too many sprouts as shown in the accompanying Garden-Graph. The competition of too many shoots will affect the yield. Also discard miniature tubers, such as the "runt" illustrated, for such potatoes when used for seed purposes cut yield.

If you plant potatoes in a trench the soil will be slightly rigid over the furrow. When it shows signs of crusting after rainfall, loosen it with an iron rake. The loosened soil enables the young sprouts to get their heads above the ground without too much of a struggle.

Stormy Waters Seen Ahead For Ike's Foreign Aid Bid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's foreign aid program ran into stormy waters in Congress Thursday with Sens. Byrd (D-Va.) and Potter (R-Mich.) demanding elimination of direct economic assistance to U. S. Allies.

Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont.) proposed that the President's request for $3,530,000,000 in military and economic help for friendly nations be sliced below $3 billion.

The vigor of objections and some obvious lack of enthusiasm by some administration supporters appeared to spell trouble for the program Eisenhower said would be directed primarily at Asia.

Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and Richards (D-SC) of the House Foreign Affairs Committee showed disinclination to tackle the problem immediately. Each said he would let the other House act on it first.

Richards' proposal to delay final consideration of the measure until the Senate acts was supported by Reps. Lawrence H. Smith (R-Wis.) and Gordon (D-Ill.), members of the House committee.

GORDON SAID he thinks the Senate will make "deep cuts" and he wants to avoid a "wide gap" between House and Senate bills.

But Rep. Morano (R-Conn.), another committee member, said "we have an obligation to consider this measure, and we should go ahead with it, without waiting for the Senate."

Byrd, who long has urged government economy, said he is "opposed to starting another large program in Asia."

"In my judgment, the time has come to eliminate all economic aid to other countries except for a reasonable amount of 'point four' technical assistance to underdeveloped countries," he said.

"The administration had a carry-over of $10,900,000,000 in foreign aid funds at the start of this calendar year. Of this, $1,800,000,000 represented direct economic aid, exclusive of defense support funds.

"With such a large carryover, there is no sense in authorizing more direct economic aid."

In a message to Congress yesterday, Eisenhower asked for $1,717,000,000 in military assistance. He proposed $712½ million in economic aid, plus $1 billion in defense support funds. Of the economic aid funds, $172 million would finance continuance of the technical aid program.

River Pollution Progress Expected

CINCINNATI (AP) — W. W. Jennings, chairman of the Ohio River Valley Water Sanitation Commission, today forecast faster progress in the control of industrial pollution in the Ohio River.

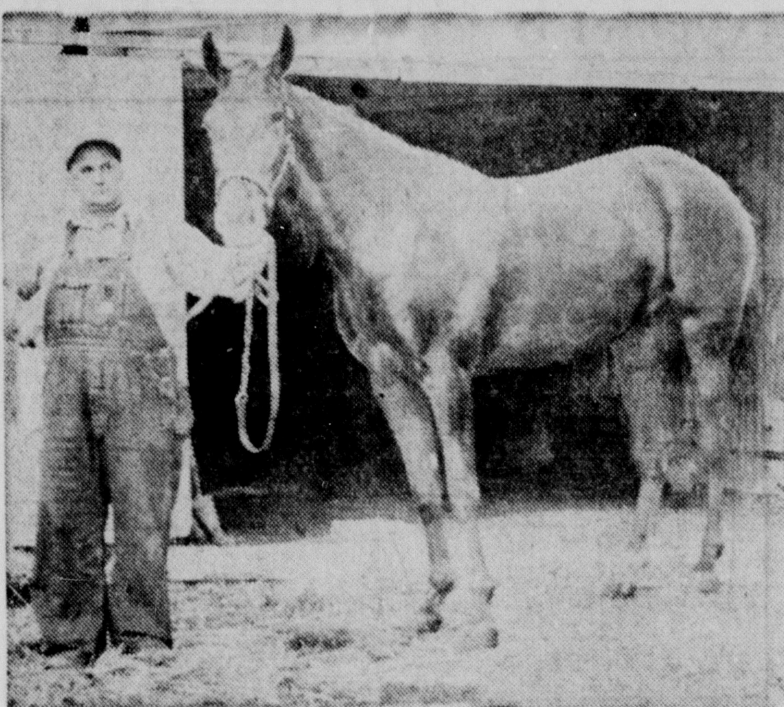

His prediction was contained in a report to the governors of the eight states which are parties to the organization.

Previously the commission has worked out agreements on curbing wastes poured into the waterway by municipalities. Now the commission, Jennings said, has after two years of study with 150 industry-action committees, set up policies and procedures for restricting industrial wastes, not only poured directly into the Ohio, but into its tributaries as well. As major tributary is the Scioto River which drains South Central Ohio.

Here's How Ohio Voted On Pay Hike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio congressmen yesterday voted this way on an amendment to provide an 8.2 per cent pay raise for postal workers passed by the House, 222-189:

Democrats for: Ashley, Feighan, Hays, Kirwan, Polk, Vanik. Republicans against: Ayres, Baumhart, Betts, Frances Bolton, Bow, Brown, Cleveland, Hender, Hess, Jenkins, McGregor, Minshall, Schenck, Scherer and Vorys. Absent or not voting: Oliver Bolton and McCulloch.

Pondering Jurors Must Stay Sober

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — The Oklahoma Criminal Court of Appeals has ruled that liquor drinking by jurors during a trial recess is not grounds for a mistrial unless they get drunk.

However, the court held that any drinking after the case has been submitted to jurors is grounds for a mistrial. Oklahoma is constitutionally dry.

Bricker Said In Line As '56 Candidate

DOVER (AP) — The Dover Daily Reporter said today it has learned that a quiet move is underway to make Sen. John W. Bricker, (R-Ohio) this state's favorite son candidate for the 1956 presidential nomination.

The paper said Bricker will be selected because Ohio's primary law requires that candidates for delegate to the national convention declare their preference for the presidential nomination.

They must submit an affidavit from the man they propose to support for president, in which the man must approve the filing of delegate candidates in his behalf. These affidavits of presidential convention delegates must be filed not later than Feb. 8, 1956.

The newspaper said that if President Eisenhower becomes a candidate for renomination, he is not likely to make a public avowal of his candidacy that early in the year and risk a primary fight with any small dissident group which might wish to force such a battle upon the President.

The newspaper's story described the prospective selection of Bricker as Ohio's GOP "favorite son" as a "holding and hedging" maneuver which would give Bricker a hold on the delegation to be released in the anticipated "Eisenhower draft" at the convention. It pointed out that if Eisenhower, for any reason, became unavailable for the nomination, Bricker could then become a front-running candidate.

Ban On Car Horns Said Safety Boon

LOS ANGELES (AP) — This city's drivers have been told that if they'd shut up, they'd live longer. A Memphis physician, Dr. Duane Carr, estimated that Los Angeles traffic deaths could be cut 50 per cent by outlawing the sound of auto horns.

Addressing a one-day symposium on clinical medicine and surgery yesterday, Dr. Carr added: "In Memphis we passed such an ordinance some 15 years ago, and our traffic accidents dropped 50 per cent in no time. The lack of horns means that we have to look where we are going, and not push another car unless we know it is safe."

Trophies, Glory for Winners Of Matinee Races Here Sunday

Eight Dashes Are To Start At 1:30 P. M.

The harness horse racing season will get under way here Sunday afternoon at the Fairground track when a score or more of trotters and pacers will match strides in the Matinee program sponsored by the Washington C. H. Lions Club.

Facing Hank Butler's mobile starting gate will be the horses that have been in training here and driving them will be the owners and trainers well known to followers of the sport here.

There won't be any cash involved, there will be no purses—but there will be the trophies and the keen friendly rivalry that always builds up in an atmosphere of close association among horsemen.

This will be the third Matinee race card sponsored by the Lions club here and the horsemen admit with broad grins that many of them raced harder at these affairs than they did when the cash was down. One of them said: "It seems to be personal...the boys seem to want to prove themselves and their horses in front of their friends and against their fellow owners and drivers."

THERE WILL be four races of two dashes each and handsome trophies have been put up for the winner of each dash—eight separate races and eight trophies. The races will come at 15-minute intervals.

The races will be conducted under the rules and regulations of the United States Trotting Association and under the supervision of state-licensed officials.

The trainers have drawn for post positions for the first dash of the race, but post positions for second dash will be determined by the finish in the first dash—the winner of the first dash get the pole, or inside, position for the second dash, the horse that finishes second in the first dash get the position second from rail, or just outside the pole horse, for the second dash... and so on.

Post time for the first race is 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Proceeds from the afternoon's racing are to go into the Lion club's sight saving fund.

Entries, drivers and post positions for the first dashes are:

St. Paul Setting Pace In AA Race

By The Associated Press
St. Paul edged back into the American Association lead as Eastern clubs began a swing through the west last night.

The Saints beat Charleston, 8-7, and displaced Toledo and Omaha, which dropped back into a second place tie. Omaha fell victim to a three-hitter by Al Curtis and bowed to Louisville, 7-1. Minneapolis blasted Toledo, 5-4. Denver, after losing six of seven starts, rebounded before a home crowd of 13,840 to whale Indianapolis, 10-1.

25 Entrants Due For Each Ohio Fair Race

COLUMBUS—An average of 25 horses per race has been achieved for the Ohio State Fair's 1955 harness racing stakes program, speed superintendent Frank Foster of Marion announced today.

With the racing schedule curtailed by a day, the number of entries is fewer than last year, according to Foster, but the average per event is approximately the same. The 1955 program will get underway Saturday, Aug. 27, and continue through the following Thursday.

Total number of entries in the 14 early closing events is $50. Six overnight races round out the five-day card. Four races will be programmed daily with each going a minimum of two heats.

Feature of the week will be the $5,000 Governor's Cup for 3-year-old trotters which is slated to be raced Sept. 1. The event marks the high water mark of the Ohio harness racing season and 32 sophomore trotters, two more than last year, have been named.

Top entry was in the $2,000 25 class pace scheduled for Monday, Aug. 29, with 38 sidewheelers named. The $3,000 Hilliards Raceway 2-year-old pace (Sept. 1) drew 37 nominations and the $3,000 Houghton Sulky Co. 2-year-old trot (Aug. 31) 33. Twenty-seven 3-year-old pacers were nominated for the $4,000 Director of Agriculture Pace on Aug. 31.

The Saturday opening will consist of four fillie events with $2,000 races for each of the two and 3-year-old girls. In all, 103 fillies were nominated.

Serafin Tops Virginia Tourney

VIRGINIA BEACH, Va. (AP)—Is John Serafin of Pittston, Pa., just a flash in the pan or has the 25-year-old son of a famous professional finally found his game to become a star on big time golf's tournament trail?

The golf circuit's veterans and younger aces who already have established themselves as stars were asking this question today as play moved into the second round in the $17,500 Virginia Beach open tournament.

Serafin, who's played very little on the circuit, shot a five-under-par 64 yesterday to finish in a deadlock with veteran Ted Kroil of Utica, N. Y., for the first round lead in the 72-hole test over the 6,065-yard, par 69.

Nobody was more surprised about his performance than Serafin, whose father, Felix, has long been linked with big time golf.

Joe Pignatzo caught for Tommy Holmes at Elmira, N. Y., last season and this year is with Holmes at Fort Worth in the Texas League.

Indians Point For First Place

CLEVELAND (AP)—Manager Al Lopez, who says he is "not worried" about the pounding the lowly Kansas City Athletics gave the famed Cleveland pitching staff, hopes the Indians can take over first place during a 16-game home stand that starts tonight against Detroit.

The Athletics, who finished last in 1954, scored 17 runs in their first two games against the Tribe this season. Cleveland won one and lost the other.

Lopez said he would pitch Bob Lemon tonight against the Tigers and follow him with Mike Garcia and Herb Score.

Pastrano Set To Test Troy

CHICAGO (AP)—Willie Pastrano, just a growing boy, and Willie Troy, a power swinger with 23 knockouts in 30 victories, match shots tonight in a scheduled 10 round bout in Chicago Stadium.

Pastrano, a product of New Orleans who now is boxing out of Miami Beach, Fla., will be making his second national television appearance. In his debut before the cameras a month ago, he disposed of Al Andrews.

Willie's middleweight test against New Yorker Troy will be viewed over NBC at 10 p. m.

Ohio Fishing This Weekend To Be 'Poor'

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio fishing prospects in the coming weekend will be poor because of recent general rains, says the Ohio Division of Wildlife.

Here's the rundown on general conditions by districts:

NORTHWESTERN—Lakes and streams generally cloudy, but bass, crappies and catfish are hitting in East Harbor. Some bass, crappies and catfish are hitting Lake St. Marys. Few bass and bluegills are being taken from Ox-bow Lake in Defiance County.

SOUTHEASTERN—Good fishing has been reported, despite generally roily lakes and streams. Fair fishing may be expected at Burr Oak Lake in Athens County, but roily and muddy conditions are expected generally over the weekend.

CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN—The Olentangy, Big and Little Walnut, Blacklick and Alum Creek in Franklin County have been producing well. Rains have dimmed the outlook for such spots as Deer Creek and Little Darby in Madison County and Sunfish Creek and Indian Gyan Creek. Fair catches may be had in parts of Buckeye Lake and Delaware Reservoir.

SOUTHWESTERN—Better than average catches of bass, crappies, catfish and bluegills have been reported from Grant Lake in Brown County, Stonelick Lake in Clermont County, Cowan Lake in Clinton County, Indian Lake in Logan County, and Decker, Swift Run and Echo Lakes in Miami County. Outlook for the weekend is fair.

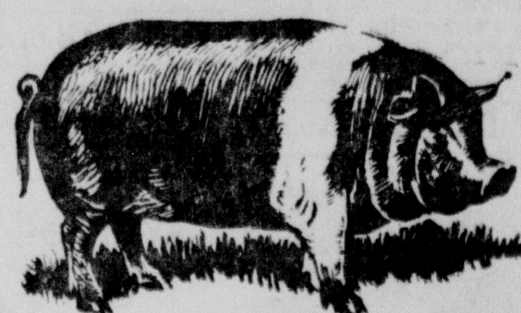

Eight of the nine starting players on Brandeis University's baseball team are football lettermen.

Janowicz Handed Baseball Blackball

NEW YORK (AP)—The baseball commissioner's office has put on the "disqualified list" Vic Janowicz, former Ohio State All-American back who failed to report for spring training this year with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

After a mediocre season with the Pirates last year he joined the pro football Washington Redskins in the fall and earned a berth as defensive halfback.

Flower - Plants - Seeds 33

It is now possible for you to increase your soybean yields. Clark soybeans make this possible. Official
tests were conducted by Mr. A. H. Probst, U. S. Regional Soybean Laboratory, U. S. D. A. and Agronomy
Dept., Purdue University. Yield comparisons from 1948 through 1954 including 19 different tests in 4
locations, Clark compared to Lincoln, the Clark
yielded 46.8 bushels per acre. The Lincoln yielded 39-5 bushels per acre. The Clark stand better than Lincolns and are very easily combined.

The Clark seed I have to offer is certified by the Ohio
Seed Improvement Association. For further information, call 41501 or write Frank B. Sollars, R. F. D. 2, Washington C. H., Ohio.

It is now possible for you to increase your soybean
tests were conducted by Mr. A. H. Probst, U. S. Regional Soybean Laboratory, U. S. D. A. and Agronomy
Dept., Purdue University. Yield comparisons from 1948 through 1954 including 19 different tests in 4
locations, Clark compared to Lincoln, the Clark
yielded 46.8 bushels per acre. The Lincoln yielded 39-5 bushels per acre. The Clark stand better than Lincolns and are very easily combined.

The Clark seed I have to offer is certified by the Ohio

Nationalists Hit Idea Of Giving Up Tiny Isles

Truce Reports Rapped; U. S. Senators Voice Varying Opinions

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—High Nationalist Chinese officials rejected beforehand today any proposal that might be made for Chiang Kai-shek's forces to abandon the tiny coastal islands of Quemoy and Matsu.

"Absurd — ridiculous — unthinkable — impossible," these officials said of Washington reports that the United States may seek a cease-fire which would mean giving up the islands to the Communists.

The officials declined to be named, but they insisted that the United States has at no time suggested, directly or indirectly, that those offshore islands be yielded to the Reds, as were the Tachens.

There was no doubt, however, that there were forebodings even in top quarters as to the possible mission here of Asst. Secretary of State Walter Robertson and Adm. Arthur Radford, chairman of the U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Meanwhile, in Washington, Sen. Morse (D-Ore) said the Eisenhower administration is "trying to save face" in the Formosa Strait situation by "eliminating its implied commitment" to defend Quemoy and Matsu.

MORRIS SAID he will seek a vote in the Foreign Relations Committee next week on his resolution to limit to Formosa and the nearby Pescadores authority given President Eisenhower in the defense-Formosa resolution passed overwhelmingly by Congress in January.

The Formosa resolution, which Morse opposed, gave Eisenhower full backing to use U. S. military force to defend "closely related positions" deemed essential to the defense of Formosa. That would cover the coastal islands.

Sen. Knowland (R-Calif) loosed a thinly veiled swipe at Secretary of State Dulles last night in reiterating his contention that Quemoy and Matsu must be held.

Dulles has said this country would not defend the coastal islands as such but would watch closely for any Red Chinese attempt to use them as stepping stones to an attack on Formosa.

"There are some who believe that you can distinguish between a Communist assault on Quemoy and Matsu in and of themselves and Quemoy and Matsu as stepping stones toward Formosa," Knowland declared.

"What nonsense is this? When the assault is underway, are we to inquire as to whether their assault is only for the possession of these outer ramparts?"

The Californian, GOP Senate leader, has strongly urged a U. S. commitment to help defend the coastal islands, held by Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalists.

Without mentioning any names, Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Maine) said last night she is "weary of the militarists on the one hand, and politically motivated civilians on the other, trying to pressure the President" to adopt their views on Quemoy and Matsu.

Meanderings

By Wash Fayette

When Nathaniel Tway of Perry Township, discovered that foxes had carried off three of his hens Wednesday morning he decided it was time to do something about it. He took his shotgun, mounted his farm tractor and started fox hunting.

The mother fox spied Nathaniel when he was yet afar off; so she left her den and vanished into a nearby woods.

Not to be cheated of his fox hunt, Nathaniel drove closer to the den and saw a young fox with its head protruding from it.

It was soon a dead fox and another the same size also fell before the roaring shotgun.

Nathaniel collected the feet and brought them to Sheriff Orland Hays' office, for they are worth $2.50 a pair, the bounty on foxes which is paid by the county.

He figures he broke about even on the hen-fox transaction.

Spirited Montgomery Ward Control Showdown Nearing

CHICAGO (AP)—Sewell L. Avery, who never has backed away from anything including the U. S. Army faces up to a new foe, Louis E. Wolfson, today.

The annual meeting of Montgomery Ward & Co. stockholders gave Avery and Wolfson an opportunity to confront each other in person for the first time.

Avery, 81, gray, erect and a rugged individual, is chairman of the company. Wolfson, 43, tall, dark and handsome, is trying to take control of the firm, the oldest and second largest mail order house in the country.

The battle arena for these men with the multimillion dollar muscles was the Medina Temple on Chicago's near North Side. There was room for 6,200 in the theater-style auditorium and basement. It could prove to be the largest gathering of its kind in American corporate history.

... Avery, as chairman, enjoyed the prerogative of presiding on the stage. Wolfson and his associates were assigned to spectator seats on the right side of the main floor near the stage.

The main event was the vote by stockholders. At stake were all nine positions on the Ward board of directors. Each side offered a full slate of nine candidates, one headed by Avery, one by Wolfson.

The side which wins a majority of five or more of the director posts will control the $721 million company.

Bank Robbery Count Faces Man, Woman

TOLEDO (AP)—Arraigning on federal bank robbery charges is charged today for a recently-discharged airman and his woman companion.

Police and FBI men yesterday arrested the pair — Herbert C. Griffith, 25, and Mrs. Alice E. Green, 23—at the Lima home of Griffith's brother.

The two were sought after an unmasked man with a sawed - off shotgun held up the Bendena, Kan. State Bank last Wednesday and fled with $1,800.

The FBI said they recovered more than $1,500 from a suitcase in the couple's possession.

Griffith and Mrs. Green waived examination before U. S. Commissioner Quentin M. Derryberry in Lima yesterday, and entered no plea, since warrants had not arrived. They were unable to post bonds of $10,000 each. They will appear before another U. S. commissioner to enter pleas.

Griffith, identified as a Vaughnville native, was honorably discharged as a staff sergeant from the Air Force last Monday at Lincoln, Neb.

Polio Vaccine For All of Ohio Kids Is on Way

Central, Southeastern Ohio Youngsters Slated To Get First Shots

Indications today were that the polio vaccinations of the first and second graders in the city and county schools would be carried out on schedule after the state Department of Health announced that enough Salk vaccine to inoculate 75,330 children is now being distributed in the section of the state that includes Fayette County.

The revised schedule for vaccinations set up by the Health Department and Medical Association called for the first shots to be given to the boys and girls in the rural schools next Wednesday, April 27, and to the children of the city schools on Thursday.

Meanwhile, parents of around 1,200 youngsters and school authorities were waiting definite word concerning the inoculation plans here.

Four vaccinations centers have been set up for the county schools — at Bloomingburg, Jeffersonville, Good Hope and the Chaffin School — and three in the city at East-side, Sunnyside and Central schools. Pupils in the other schools are to be taken to one of the inoculation centers nearest their school.

... However, Secretary of State Dulles was authoritatively reported to have turned down this suggestion in outspoken terms in a meeting Monday with French Ambassador Couve de Murville.

Tom Murray Loses Case on Phone Device

Tom G. Murray of Washington C. H. has lost out in his attempt to prove to the Public Utilities Commission that he has a right to install his own robot telephone-answering device on his telephone.

In a lengthy decision, the commission ruled that the vending machine operator was out of bounds when he bought his own answering device instead of renting one from the Ohio Bell Telephone Co.

Murray installed a $400 "telemagnet" at his Devalon Road home two years ago to handle business calls in his absence. Ohio Bell cut off his telephone service when he refused to remove the telemagnet, but a court order restored service.

The commission in its ruling accepted Ohio Bell's argument that Murray's device was "inferior, not well - designed equipment." There was no direct connection between Murray's device and his telephone. He plugged the telemagnet into an electrical outlet and set the telephone on top. When the telephone rang an arm raised the receiver slightly and recorded the incoming call.

Ohio Bell charges $12.50 a month for a company answering device, a $15 charge for installation, plus 15 per cent federal tax. Murray estimated he saved $140 a month by using an automatic machine instead of hiring someone to handle his calls.

The action filed by Murray was first heard by Judge John P. Case, who returned a finding in favor of Murray, restraining the telephone company from discontinuing service.

The case was then carried to the public utilities commission where it was heard months ago, and the decision just came through Friday, in favor of the telephone company.

Murray is represented by Reed M. Winegardner, and it was indicated Friday that the case may be carried to the Ohio Supreme Court for settlement.

Results of the action had been watched throughout the country as a new question had been raised, it seems, of interest to many telephone users and telephone companies.

Collins Giving Ike Report On Viet Nam Political Crisis

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. J. Lawton Collins, openly concerned about the political crisis in free Viet Nam, reported his findings to President Eisenhower today.

Against a backdrop of sharp differences between the United States and France on further support for the government of Premier Ngo Dinh Diem, the president's special ambassador arranged to call at the White House with Undersecretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr.

Collins said on his arrival yesterday from violence-flecked Saigon that the situation "is serious." Asked if the United States will continue to support Diem, he said quickly: "Our government is behind the legal government of Viet Nam."

Diem's resignation has been demanded by a united front of three armed religious sects—the Binh Xuyen, the Cao Dai and the Hoa Hao.

French authorities also were said to be urging Diem's immediate replacement by Emperor Bao Dai and appointment of another government leader.

However, Secretary of State Dulles was authoritatively reported to have turned down this suggestion in outspoken terms in a meeting Monday with French Ambassador Couve de Murville.

Nevertheless Paris reports have persisted that a Franco-American agreement has been reached on

Personal and Classified Tax Distribution

Fayette County First In State To Receive Approval This Year

The staff in the county auditor's office in the Court House here feels somewhat elated over the result of its brisk efforts to make settlement and distribution of the recently collected personal property and classified taxes.

Notice was received from the state tax department that Fayette County was the first to send in its report and the first to receive the state draft of approval.

The May distribution is now being made from the auditor's office of these taxes. The personal tax in the recent collection ending the last of March amounted to $121,100 an increase of $75 over the same period last year. The classified tax collection amounted to $19,250, a gain of $2,080 over last year.

The distribution of the personal tax being made was as follows: To the state, $1,305.05, townships of the county $6,811.28; schools $75,118.19, of which the Washington C. H. schools received $18,687.36 and the rural and village schools $56,430.83; city and village corporations, Washington C. H. $7,043.69; the remaining small village corporation $493.16; county's general fund $22,513; district TB Hospital fund $1,631.36; to the Fayette County Memorial Hospital original bond issue $1,957.63; Memorial Hospital new addition fund $2,936.44; county health fund $1,290.20.

On the distribution from the classified tax the county general fund receives $3,560.99; to the state $46.96; the city and village corporations of the county $10,142.05; public library fund $5,500.

By The Associated Press
The sun won't be up as high as usual when millions of Americans go to work next week, but it'll stay up longer after they get home.

Reason for the change is daylight saving time, which goes into effect in the most populous sections of the nation at 2 a. m. Sunday. At that moment, it suddenly will become 3 a. m.

The household will have to get up and stir around an hour earlier, but they'll have an extra hour of sunshine when the day's done.

A national survey by the Elgin Observatory, Elgin, Ill., shows nearly 70 million Americans will go on the new schedule. The other 81 million will stick to standard time.

The shift will be made in New England, New York, New Jersey, Washington, D. C., Delaware, California and Nevada, virtually all of Maryland and Pennsylvania, most of Illinois, and northeastern parts of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky.

The South and the great central region of the United States will stay on regular time. Farmers say the cows don't come home until sundown, and there's no point in changing clocks if they can't change milking time.

Although daylight time customarily has ended the last Sunday in September, there are plans to extend it until the last Sunday in October this year in the Northeastern states.

Danish Islanders Battling To Keep Their Only Doctor

THORSHAVN, Faeroe Islands (AP)—Bordo islanders shined up harpoons, boathooks and shotguns today and mapped defense against fresh government efforts to remove their doctor.

Word from Copenhagen that 120 tough Danish riot police were headed by ship for Bordo, one of Denmark's sparsely settled Faeroe group in the North Atlantic between Iceland and the Shetlands, drew an angry reaction.

Radio orders went out to all trawlers and cutters owned by Bordo fishing companies to return to their home port, Klaksvig.

It was considered probable in Thorshavn that the Bordoers want to block the entrance to Klaksvig harbor with their vessels, riding at

the hilt. "It appears to be a question of what foreign office do you believe," said one official.

Collins has been reported somewhat pessimistic about Diem's chances of working out an agreement with the rebellious armed sects who control the national police. He is said to have agreed with the French viewpoint that an open clash would plunge the country into civil war and perhaps allow the Communists to take over.

But State Department officials have contended that French authorities with 100,000 troops still in Viet Nam have not given full support to Diem.

These officials said it would do no good to change governments as long as the armed sects could exert pressure through control of the police.

Meanwhile, Vietnamese national troops began reoccupying the Binh Dinh area in Central Viet Nam, last zone south of the 17th parallel held by the Communist-Vietminh.

Vietminh forces simultaneously moved into part of the Haiphong zone, the last French-controlled area in North Viet Nam.

The operations will be completed on May 16.

Both transfers started under the eyes of International Armistice Control Commission teams. The Geneva accords ending the Indochina war set the 17th parallel as the dividing line.

Indian Chief Hits Both Sides In Cold War

Both Reds, Anti-Reds Said Wrong, Leading World Into Conflict

BANDUNG, Indonesia (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru assailed the North Atlantic Treaty Organization today as a protector of colonialism and urged his own neutralist policy upon other delegates to the 29-nation Asian-African conference.

"We should not take any sides in the cold war," declared the Indian leader, who has been trying to keep the first international conference of the Asian - African countries from bogging down in an ideological argument.

Nehru's blast came in response to a statement from Turkish delegate Fatin Rustu Zolli that "Turkey would not have survived (Russian expansion) and we would not be at this conference today" if she had not joined NATO.

"WE HAVE HEARD what Turkey has to say," Nehru responded. "That is one side of the case. The other case would be presented here. But India does not stand for either side. We do not approve the Communist or the anti-Communist powers. We think that they are both wrong and that their policies are leading us to the brink of war."

The Indian leader contended that the 14-nation organization headed by the United States, Britain and France is "one of the most powerful protectors of colonialism, though it was created for self-defense."

Nehru spoke strongly in favor of coexistence.

The conference ran into its first big deadlock today in a bitter argument over charges of "communist colonialism."

After a three-hour discussion, a nine-member subcommittee was appointed to try for agreement on a compromise resolution. Red China had proposed a general endorsement of the U.N. Charter of Human Rights. But another resolution, submitted by nine nations headed by Iran, would have the conference condemn colonialism "in any form." It specifically mentioned "international doctrines resorting to methods of force, infiltration and subversion."

The new discord was touched off yesterday by Ceylon's Premier Sir John Kotelawala, who challenged Red sincerity in proposing peaceful coexistence among nations of differing social systems.

DESCRIBING the Cominform (communism's international organization) as the main organ of "Soviet colonialism," Kotelawala declared the Reds should dissolve this body if they really want peaceful coexistence.

Kotelawala said today he did not want to "wreck" the conference but insisted, "I do want to discuss both sides of colonialism."

Delegates reported that Chou, at this morning's committee meeting, urged the group not to enter into arguments since they "would not be fruitful nor would agreement be possible." He said he had not come to Bandung to discuss ideology because that was not the meeting's purpose.

Lima Man Seeks To Avoid Summons

CLEVELAND (AP)—Tommaso Argento of Lima was held in jail today while Federal Judge James C. Connell considered a writ of habeas corpus filed by the 59-year-old man's attorneys.

From the U. S. State Department the Italian government obtained a warrant for his extradition. The Italians want him on a 1922 murder charge.

Tommaso's attorneys argued an extradition treaty between Italy and the United States was not properly negotiated.

Coal Dealer Finally Takes A Vacation

EASTHAMPTON, Mass. (AP)—George H. Halford, 68, a coal dealer in Easthampton 43 years, put an advertisement in the local paper yesterday, saying:

"I have waited a long time for a vacation. I wanted it before the rocking chair days got me."

He sold his business and then he left for a long vacation.

In 43 years, he said, he has taken only two one-week vacations.

Sportsmen Here Satisfied When Case Settled

Stream Pollution Argument Is Won Without Injunction

The Fayette County Fish and Game Association today was very happy about the outcome of a squabble over stream pollution it had with the Crites Canning Co. of New Holland last summer. Frank Boylan, the president said.

However, he added, that the association's members would remain on the lookout for any recurrence of the conditions that irked them so much last summer.

Boylan's comment followed an announcement by Charles A. Dambach, chief of the Ohio Division of Wildlife, that the Crites case had been settled out of court.

The fact that the case was settled, is viewed by Boylan and other Fish and Game Association members here as evidence that their complaints about pollution by the Crites Co. were justified.

On Sept. 1, 1953, Dambach said, a number of fish were killed as the result of wastes from the canning company being run into a small unnamed stream which eventually empties into the east branch of Paint Creek. It was in this latter stream where the fish were found.

The Crites firm, which was canning corn at the time of the fish killing, settled the claim in the amount of $300.

When the hassle was at fever heat, the Fish and Game Association was all prepared to file an injunction suit against the Crites Co. to compel it to cease polluting the stream.

A truce was effected on the eve of the schedule court action and the situation has remained at a sort of status quo ever since.

Boylan said he was not certain about exactly what was done with the $300 paid in settlement, but that he felt the situation had been cleared up. However, he added, the association would come right back with its injunction if the pollution was resumed.

Republicans Book Highway Parley

WASHINGTON (AP)—A conference on highway problems is booked today for a group of Ohio Republican and legislative leaders meeting with Rep. J. Harry McGregor (R-Ohio).

The congressman said yesterday that C. D. Curtis, federal commissioner of public roads, will attend the conference.

Polio Vaccine Here

the vaccine can be made available on an equal-to-everybody basis.

Invited to take part were representatives of government agencies, the medical and public health professions, the drug industry, congressional committees concerned and others.

Dr. Jonas E. Salk of the University of Pittsburgh, developer of the vaccine, arrived last night to attend the conference and to receive a citation from President Eisenhower. "I've just come to listen," Salk said of the conference.

He and Basil O'Connor, head of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, had a White House appointment to receive special presidential citations.

Secretary of Welfare Hobby called the conference, which was closed to the public and newsmen, in accordance with a directive from Eisenhower to survey and report to him on the best means of assuring equitable distribution of the paralysis preventive.

500 Youths Set Up Mock Government

COLUMBUS (AP)—About 500 "weekend legislators" swing into action today with more than a hundred bills up for consideration.

The "laws" passed will carry no authority, but will reflect the thinking of many Ohio high school students in their study of practical politics.

It's all part of the fourth annual Ohio Model Legislature, which opens a three-day session today. The project is sponsored by Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y groups.

The organizations' youth and government program starts with election of officials. District candidates have helped design 25 Senate bills and 79 House bills along with 15 resolutions.

Lt. Gov. John Brown presided over a joint session in House chambers this afternoon. After election of governor, clerk and chaplain, the Senate and House move into separate sessions.

The model legislators will be guests at the governor's banquet tonight at Ohio State University.

Candidates for governor are Stephen Allen, Oak Hill; John Irons, Bellevue.

For clerk in Senate and House: Patricia Collins, Chillicothe; David Horr, Portsmouth.

Chaplain for both houses: Nancy Brown, Chillicothe; Don Caprino, Marion; Janet Morris, New Boston.

Educating Masses Said Difficult Task

BURLINGTON, Vt. (AP)—Ernest Van Den Haag, professor of philosophy at New York University, says "the dispensing of knowledge becomes entirely wrong when we address ourselves to the great masses whose intellect is low."

He said last night that educating the large masses "destroys reverence" because "there is conflict between knowledge and the myth upon which society rests."

He said also that the rise in the number of college students since the war is creating "a decline in the quality of both the students and the faculty."

Prof. Van Den Haag spoke at the fourth annual Vermont conference at the University of Vermont.

Painting Signs On City Streets

Street superintendent Clyde Smith and his crew have been working on important street painting as the weather permits.

Already they have repainted the 25 and 35 miles an hour signs on some of the main streets where violations of the speed laws have been most prevalent.

The school signs also have been repainted to lessen danger to children during the remainder of the school term.

Important crosswalks at the schools also have been painted, and as weather permits, the crew will extend the work on Court Street. First the center and cross walk line are to be repainted and then the parking lines throughout the business area will be done.

Most of the lines have been dimmed through the months of use and winter weather.

The Nation Today

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — The American people and the Red Chinese have one thing in common: Both are left guessing whether the Eisenhower administration intends to defend the Matsu and Quemoy Islands, close to the Red China coast.

The administration itself is guessing, so far as is publicly known. All it has said is vague. Meanwhile, the American public gets repeated jolts from developing events, as if bumping into a short-circuit.

There have been several jolts in recent weeks. They were startling when they happened.

Chiang Kai-shek, the American ally, claims Matsu and Quemoy and has troops on them. His main forces are on Formosa. The United States, by treaty with Chiang, is pledged to defend Formosa but not Matsu and Quemoy.

In a special message to Congress Jan. 24 President Eisenhower asked Congress for specific authority to defend Formosa and closely related localities. Those localities could mean Matsu and Quemoy, but Eisenhower didn't say so.

He said such authority from Congress—which Congress gave him quickly—would reduce the possibility that the Red Chinese might misjudge the U.S. "purpose" and "precipitate a major crisis."

What he intended to do about Quemoy and Matsu, being vague in the message, could only leave the Chinese guessing. The President still hasn't said anything definite about the islands.

If all that the administration has said about them could be boiled down it would be this: The President will decide on fighting for Quemoy and Matsu if the Reds attack them and he thinks then Formosa is endangered.

A few weeks ago Adm. Robert B. Carney was quoted by some newsmen, after an off-the-record dinner with him, as expecting an attack on Quemoy and Matsu by April 15. A short time later the President said he had no such information.

To add to the confusion, Carney said he hadn't been quoted correctly. And newsmen who had been at the dinner didn't agree on just what he said.

Last Sunday, after a visit with Eisenhower, Secretary of State Dulles told newsmen that "only during the last few days" this government had learned of an "intense" Chinese airpower buildup opposite Formosa.

On Wednesday the Defense Department announced, "in view of the tense situation" in the Formosa area, Adm. Arthur W. Radford and Walter S. Robertson, assistant secretary of state, would fly to Formosa. They left within two hours.

At almost the same time Dulles told newsmen "no crisis is involved" and that the two men were going to Formosa for the "normal maintenance of contact in a situation that is admittedly serious."

Yesterday Sen. George (D-Ga.), chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, the one man outside the administration most likely to know the purpose of the Radford-Robertson trip, said he thought the men were going to Formosa to get a first-hand view of the situation.

The President, if he has made up his mind about Matsu and Quemoy, may be keeping it quiet so he can negotiate with the Red Chinese for the islands in return for a cease-fire in the Formosa area. But it's not certain he's made up his mind.

Fayette To Be Represented at Refuse Clinic

Meeting at Chillicothe Tuesday Is Open To General Public

In a meeting to be held at the Elks Hall in Chillicothe next Tuesday, April 26, Fayette County Health Department officials and possibly some representatives of the municipal government of Washington, C. H., as well as of other organizations here, will attend an important refuse clinic.

Dr. N. M. Dyer, Fayette County's health department and Glen Allen executive secretary of the Washington Chamber of Commerce have announced their intention of being present. Allen is on the program for a talk on the refuse problem during the morning session.

The general program will cover many subjects on the significant question before the meeting which is, "has the garbage and refuse problem been solved in your community?"

Village and county groups from this part of the state will take part in the conference program, as well as city groups. Those present will be told how various communities have met and solved the general problem involved and how their methods are financed.

Films and picture slides will be shown dealing with some of the difficulties involved and how they can be handled. There will be demonstrations of operation of sanitary landfills, also equipment exhibits.

Members of civic organizations and the general public will be welcome to attend, according to announcement of those in charge. Discussions will offer all individuals opportunity to participate and to ask for advice. The sessions start at 10 A. M. and will continue until late afternoon except for the noon lunch hour.

State University Fund Cuts Hit

COLUMBUS (AP)—Budget cuts of state-supported universities threaten to cheapen the American education system, two university presidents said yesterday.

The educators protested an $11 million cut in budgets of six state supported universities. They had asked $76,532,306 and received $65,763,826 in budget allowance.

John C. Baker, president of Ohio University, said European universities, with the assurance of proper financing, were attracting quality students away from America.

Baker and Dr. Howard L. Bevis, president of Ohio State University, warned the House Finance Committee that budget cuts may jeopardize present educational levels and seriously retard the teacher-training program.

Record Bankruptcy Rate Predicted For Next Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Appropriations Committee said today the coming fiscal year may see the "highest number of bankruptcies recorded in the history of the country."

It made the observation, without elaboration, in sending to the House a $450,398,227 appropriations bill to finance the State Department, the Justice Department, the federal judiciary and the U. S. Information Agency for the bookkeeping year starting July 1.

During the current fiscal year, the committee said, approximately 65,000 bankruptcy cases will be filed, with an increase to 75,000 expected next year.

It approved the $1,151,400 requested for salaries of bankruptcy referees and $1,650,000 for referees' expenses. This is $172,375 more than Congress appropriated for the same work this year.

The committee's over-all action represented a cut of approximately 7 per cent in presidential money requests for the agencies to be financed by the bill.

By agencies, here's how the committee allotted the money:

	Asked	Allotted
State	147,267,197	126,759,977
Justice	201,485,000	197,525,000
USIA	88,500,000	80,500,000
Refugee	16,000,000	16,000,000

In a formal report accompanying the bill, the committee made no reference to the current controversy over removal of Edward J. Corsi from his State Department post as special assistant handling refugee and immigration matters.

Its only notable criticism of any agency was directed at the USIA, "more diplomats who represent all races."

Mrs. James D. Wyker, president of United Church Women, returning by air yesterday from Germany, said: "Such action would immeasurably strengthen our foreign policy and win more friends for the United States." Mrs. Wyker heads a group of 10 million Protestant women.

Mac Dews Team Now Taking Form

The Mac Dews club of the Southwestern Ohio Baseball League is beginning to take shape, the Junior Dews said.

At the initial practice session several of last year's mainstays turned out including Third Baseman Howard Boggs and Center Fielder Howard Gardner Jr.

Dews said Clyde Woodruff, a newcomer to team, was looking good behind the plate. The team was hit hard by the draft. Pitcher Tubby Dunn, Second Baseman Bob Bishop and Shortstop Wayne Baird are now in service.

The pitching staff probably will not be at its best until school lets out for the summer. That's when Eddie Robinette will become eligible to throw the apple for Dews. Rodger Mickle will be eligible to play second base then too.

Dews said several positions — both in the infield and outfield — are still wide open. Boys and men interested in playing this summer should call Dews either at home (35951) or office (56011) as soon as possible.

Dews has obtained the Bloomingburg Lions Club diamond for his team's home field each Sunday.

Most of the teams in the league will hold practice sessions Sunday afternoon. The opening games will be played the following Sunday, May 1.

The average length of life for Americans has increased by 30 years since 1850.

Your School Report Card

By W. A. SMITH
(City School Superintendent)

One of the Pen Pals previously referred to in the Report Card has recently written to Judy K. Jamison, a 6th grader at Central School. This Pen Pal lives in South Hobart, Tasmania, Australia, and some of the things about which she wrote are quite interesting.

We are quoting parts of her letter here:

"I am fourteen years of age and I am in my 4th year at the Hobart High School.

"Our city has 90,000 people, but it is very small compared to the cities in America. Our school is the largest in Australia. We have 880 pupils.

"Do you have TV? We don't because TV has not been brought to Australia yet. Do you go to the pictures? Have you seen any of the film stars? I do not go to pictures very much, but I like to see Jane Powell and Mario Lanza.

"We have a regatta or carnival each year where everyone goes to have a good time. There are all kinds of entertainments: Round-a-Bank, side shows, stalls, and water events."

Letters similar to this give the students a better insight into the customs, thoughts, and recreation of students of a similar age in foreign countries.

Judy has written to this girl and will be answering her letter and giving her views about the city of Washington, C. H. and surrounding area.

The Citizenship Clubs of Central

School sing a song which may be of interest to our reader. Following are the contents:

I am proud of my town —
Is my town proud of me?
What she needs is citizens
Trained in loyalty.
When we work, when we play,
With our fellowmen,
Good citizens we will be;
Then I'll be proud, be proud of Washington,

Contractor Books Paving Speed Test

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) — A test to see how fast a contractor can pave the equivalent of a city block with asphalt will be one of the attractions at the dedication of the Asphalt Institute's new headquarters here.

The Corson-Gruman Co. of Washington will make the attempt May 5. It will have two asphalt spreaders, two rollers, and 14 eight-ton trucks ready to spread asphalt in a 1 1/2-inch layer over a street in front of the new building on the University of Maryland campus.

The company has said it expects to pave it in less than an hour.

No Opposition To This National Acclaim

Most certainly there will be no muttered opposition to the general agreement that one man who should receive enthusiastic nation-wide recognition is Dr. J. E. Salk who is responsible for the new polio vaccine which seems likely to put and end to the polio scourge.

It is said that under the direct order of President Eisenhower, the federal government and especially the department of health, education and welfare, will cooperate fully in seeing to it that the children of America, doubtless also the rest of the world, shall quickly obtain advantage of this miraculous new vaccine for prevention of poliomyelitis.

Here is a gigantic new step in man's effort to conquer disease. It ranks with the steps which practically have stopped the threats of many formerly nation-wide diseases which now are no longer regarded as dangerous under new cures established.

Those of us who grew up on the thrilling stories of "Men Against Death" and

"Microbe Hunters" by Dr. Paul de Kruif, feel a warm surge of affection for Dr. Jonas E. Salk. He is a worthy addition to the fellowship of brilliant research scientists in the fight against disease and human suffering.

Congressional action to award a special Medal to Dr. Salk is only one of the many tributes of our deep regard for the work he has done and a tribute, too, to the hundreds of unknown men and women whose aid, encouragement, trials and errors in the same field of polio research contributed to this modern miracle.

Far greater than this recognition is the rich reward which the doctor will receive in the daily prayers of every mother, father, and grandparent throughout the world who may rest a little easier each day in the confidence that one daily fear may be pushed aside in this vale of tears.

Ernie Pyle Would Be Proud

By Hal Boyle

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (P)—Ernie Pyle died on a far Pacific isle 10 years ago this week, as the war he hated was drawing to an end.

He now lies buried in a U.S. military cemetery in Hawaii among the servicemen whose story he told with simple eloquence. But in another sense Ernie didn't stay overseas. He is back home here forever on the campus of Indiana University, where in student days he first dreamed of winning newspaper fame.

Certainly his spirit is enshrined here. Ernie remains a living symbol to hundreds of fledgling young newspaper men and women who are bolstered in both heart and hope by the example of his career.

Ernie never was graduated by his alma mater. He quit during his senior year to go to work. Some of the oldtimers here say he left because of a broken romance with a red-haired girl. Others say, "No, it was just because he was Ernie, already restless to be on his way."

Once Pyle did leave the campus in January, 1923, he stayed away for 21 years. He loved the university but said he wanted to remember it as he had known it in his youth. He came back only once in his lifetime—to take an honorary degree in 1944. A few months later he was killed by a sniper's bullet on Ie Shima.

But today the personality of the shy, brooding farmboy who became the greatest battle reporter of his generation dominates his old school.

A $500,000 journalism building has been named in his honor. A plaque commemorating his achievements has been set up by Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalistic fraternity.

In the lounge of Ernie Pyle Hall are collected a number of mementoes of the correspondent. They include the trenching tool he used to dig his own foxholes, a beat-up dress cap he wore in London, his battered portable typewriter, his medals, and one of the last columns he wrote before his death.

World Racial Conflict Brewing?

By George Sokolsky

The Bandung Conference is the assertion of race. It represents the assertion of racial equality of the Asiatic and African peoples; in time will come the assertion of racial superiority.

Race is the most emotional, the most dynamic factor in human history. It is the sense of being "chosen," of being foremost, of being superior. Racial preservation is a powerful incentive not only for self-adornment as for hatred of hers to. Modern anthropologists tend to deny race as unscientific, as an inaccurate division of the human race. Whether they are more correct than their forebears is not for me to say one way or the other, but race constantly asserts itself politically in the attitudes of peoples and it is race that is meet at Bandung—yellow and brown and black, men who believe that they are equal or possibly superior because of their racial origins and of carefully nurtured traditions.

To the pigmented peoples, the so-called "white" folk of Western Europe are newcomers on the world scene who during the 18th and 19th centuries managed to turn ancient races into natives who lived in colonies. During those centuries, these races learned to hate the white man, to hate him as a racial inferior, a racial parvenu who had come into possession of their world.

Take Nehru as an example. This man culturally is an Englishman. The language he has used most of his life until he became master of India was English. He lived most of the important years of his education in Western Europe, being educated at Harrow and Cambridge and reading law in the inner temple. He was closer to the socialistic trends of the West than to any influences in Asia until he joined Gandhi.

One would imagine that such a man would be British in sympathy and even affiliation. But he is not because of race. Racially he is a Hindu. Culture, self-interest, personal associations mean very little in the presence of race.

Mahatma Gandhi, who revived the peoples of India, racially complex, to a strong sense of freedom, always took the position that he opposed race; yet every position he took increased the sense of race among the racial groups in Asia. K. R. Kripalani, discussing the relations of Gandhi and the great Indian poet, Tagore, wrote:

"Though Gandhi had become the spearhead of Indian nationalism and Tagore was looked upon as the prophet of internationalism, Gandhi's mission of liberation embraces the entire humanity, and Tagore's love of his country was as deep-rooted and as intense as Gandhi's. 'I am wedded to India,' says Gandhi, 'because I believe absolutely that she has a mission for the world. My religion has no geographical limits. I have a living faith in it, which will transcend even by love for India herself.' Again: 'For me patriotism is the same as humanity. I am patriotic because I am human and humane.'"

In Asia, patriotism and race are identical. That is why it had to be that as soon as freedom came to India, it had to split up. It had to become two countries, India, it had to split up. It had to become two countries, India and Pakistan, with Kashmir outside of each and the Pathans trying to organize a state of their own.

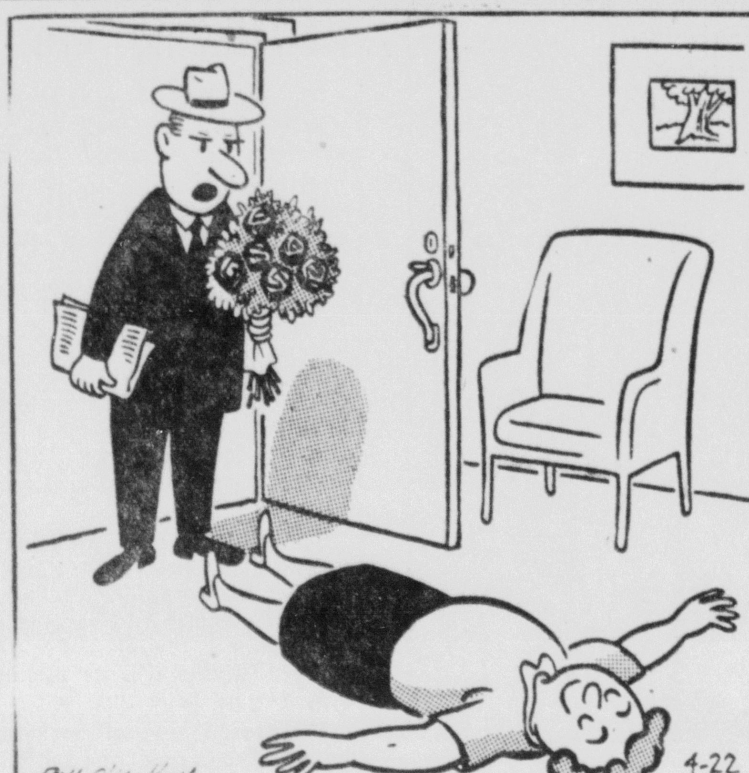

It will be this sense of race that Communist China will face in Asia as the British faced it since Clive. For whereas the Chinese have always regarded themselves as the superior of all races, the oldest civilization on earth, the sons of Han, with whom none could compare, many of the other races of Asia decline to recognize such a sense of superiority. It will be something to note when the "humanitarian" Nehru and the Marxist Chou En-Lai, who theoretically believe in a raceless world, vie for the control of Asia through racial emphasis.

For it is the struggle between India and Red China for supremacy that must come out of the Bandung Conference. Here a Hindu, Chou En-Lai, Mongolian, Arab line up the races of Asia on a doctrine that differences do not provide; that there is strength and the prospect of unity in hatred for the so-called "white man, in revenge for centuries of umbrage at the hands of the newcomers. Such a concept can let loose a scourge that can last for centuries and that can force upon the Europeans and Americans—the Westerners, in short—decades of defensive necessity.

Chronic Bronchitis Common In Adults

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Unlike bronchitis or acute bronchitis which usually runs its course in about two weeks, chronic bronchitis will only get worse if left untreated. This might leave the victim a semi-invalid.

A memorial fund of more than $50,000 raised by newspaper admirers has provided some 60 Ernie Pyle journalism scholarships during the postwar years. Many of them went to war veterans, and Stempel said most of the winners have gone on and done well in newspaper work.

"Ernie himself had a good academic record while he was in school," he remarked. Standing before the glass case that holds his typewriter, the same typewriter I had so often seen Ernie beat out his copy on during the war years, I had a haunted feeling, as if the man himself were invisibly present.

Certainly if he could know what has been done here in his name, I'm sure Ernie Pyle couldn't ask for a happier memorial. He was a man of unending small kindnesses in his lifetime. Now a decade after his death he remains an inspiration and a concrete help to struggling youngsters learning the writing craft he himself ennobled.

So distressing is chronic bronchitis that just about everything has been tried to cure it. Since it usually occurs in cold damp climates, you might get relief by moving to a warm, dry climate. If such a move is impossible maybe a change in jobs will help you. A warm, dry occupation might bring considerable relief.

Adams Chided By Sparkman On News Leak

WASHINGTON (P)—Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.) said today he has concluded Sherman Adams "simply cannot back up" an implication that leaks of government documents are traceable to holdovers from Democratic administrations.

Sparkman said he has waited more than two weeks for Adams, President Eisenhower's chief assistant, to reply to his request that Adams "say definitely" whether leaks were traced to Democrats.

Adams wrote Sparkman early this month he was "striving" to meet the "special problem of leaks that arises when a new administration is obliged to operate largely with personnel held over from previous administrations."

Sparkman wrote back asking Adams to name the persons who supplied the Yalta papers to the New York Times ahead of their general release and two other government documents to the Wall Street Journal. If Adams didn't want to disclose the names, Sparkman wrote, "I wonder if you are any alcohol if you've got chronic bronchitis. Your doctor can give you drugs which dilate the bronchi, enabling pus and mucus to be expelled freely.

Maybe he'll give you codeine to reduce your coughing during the night. Ephedrine tablets usually relieve the bronchial spasm. Sometimes, however, it is necessary to operate to remove a hopelessly clogged part of the lung or to cut a hole in the windpipe to get the material out.

Penicillin a Great Aid

With development of antibiotics, these extreme measures are used less frequently. Penicillin is a great aid because it strikes at many more bacteria than the previously used sulfa drugs. And within the past few years other broad-range antibiotics have been developed which help keep bronchial infections in check through the simple procedure of swallowing capsules.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

K. L.: What causes bad breath within an hour after eating and a white coating on my tongue, and what could I do for this condition? My teeth are perfect.

Answer: Bad odor of the breath may come from several things, such as infected teeth, bad tonsils or adenoids, or infection of the nose or nasal sinuses. A thorough examination should be made to determine the cause. When this is found, the condition can be quickly cleared up.

willing to say definitely that they are Democrats."

Two days ago Secretary of State Dulles named Asst. Secretary Carl W. McCordie, hired by Dulles, as the man who gave the Yalta papers to the New York Times.

Hawaii Sending Orchids To College

DELAWARE (P)—Classmates of Ohio Wesleyan freshman Kenneth Hazemoto sent him home for Christmas, and his Hawaiian family and friends are sending back their thanks—with flowers.

The orchids, about 200 pounds of them, are being flown in from Honolulu.

Hazemoto, 20, said the orchids are mainly intended for a Beta Sigma Tau fraternity dance Saturday night.

There are 21 whooping cranes, sole survivors of the species compared with 25 last year and a low of 15 in 1942.

Ray Tucker

WASHINGTON — War or no war between now and the presidential election in November, 1956, Republican political strategists are convinced that President Eisenhower can be reelected against anybody the Democrats may name as his opponent. Their belief is based on a confidential canvas of representative leaders throughout the country by National Chairman Leonard W. Hall and congressional pollsters on Capitol Hill.

Eisenhower will fare as well or better than he did in 1952, according to this roundup, if he can avoid an armed conflict without further appeasement of Russia.

A war precipitated by a decision to defend the Quemoy and Matsu Islands, it is admitted, would be extremely unpopular. Nevertheless, once the United States is engaged in a clash with Red China, no matter the cause of the encounter, the survey suggests that Ike's political stock would rise.

Without war, he would campaign as keeper of the peace, as against the GOPsters argument that our three costliest conflicts occurred on "Democratic Time."

With war on our hands, he would be hailed—by Republican orators, that is—as the right man in the right place at the right time.

RUN AGAIN — The We-want-Ike-again faction of the Republican party—and that takes in almost everybody, including the right wing represented by Senators McCarthy, Bridges and Dirksen—rejoice over Chief Justice Earl Warren's public and vigorous renunciation of any presidential ambitions. They figure that it will force Eisenhower, no matter how reluctant he may be, to run again.

So long as the eminent and popular Californian was a prospect, there was a chance that the President might bow out after a single term. As a progressive and liberal figure—too progressive and too liberal, some GOPsters believe—Warren could probably win as the 1956 candidate.

TWIST—A generally unnoted but extremely significant political twist is the current meticulous behavior of the pro-McCarthy and pro-Chiang Kai-shek bloc on Capitol Hill. Despite their distaste for certain Eisenhower-Dulles policies, they have fallen behind the President in his conduct of foreign affairs. They are back on the regular reservation.

Warren's renunciation, oddly, contributed to their conversion. With the Californian out of the political picture, it becomes certain that Ike will be the 1956 nominee. So, they cannot afford to bicker with and oppose the man for whom they will ask votes only 18 months from now, especially as foreign policy may be an issue next year.

SUPPORT—Moreover, two of the McCarthy men must face the voters under possibly troublesome conditions, and will need Ike's full and generous support. Although Styles Bridges received the largest majority ever given a United States senator in his last political appearance, New Hampshire has shown Democratic tendencies now and then. Last year, such a GOP Gibraltar as Maine elected a Democratic governor. Bridges must run again next November. He will need Ike.

Sen. Everett McKinley Dirksen of Illinois, who sided with McCarthy invariably during the Schine-Cohn inquiry, will want White House help when he faces the voters in 1956. Ike cannot and will not urge Dirksen's reelection unless "Dirk" behaves in the meantime. Recent Democratic victories in Chicago and Michigan indicate that the "boy orator" with a bryanesque flair may also need presidential reinforcement.

NO SPLIT—McCarthy himself has hardly "made" the front page since he lost the chairman's Subcommittee on Investigations, which provided him with a publicity pulpit. Several of his sturdiest House supporters were shelved by the voters in the 1954 congressional elections.

As a result of political acrobatics, National Chairman Hall believes that the threatened split in Republican ranks will not materialize. In fact, he predicts that, "We will be more united than the Democrats, with their Harriman-Lehman and George Byrd factions."

Sohio Accused Of Unfair Practice

WASHINGTON (P)—A Toledo gas station operator says the Standard Oil Co. of Ohio has a "stranglehold" on independent station owners in the state through control of gas prices.

Harold Grindle testified yesterday before a House committee probing complaints that the major oil firms control independent.

Grindle said Sohio operates 375 retail stations in Ohio, and independent stations are forced to meet company retail prices to keep in business.

Montgomery Ward Control Fight Nearing

CHICAGO (AP)—The eyes of American business will be focused tomorrow on a structure that looks like an old-world mosque.

It's the Medinah Temple at 600
N. Wabash Ave., a four-story
brick building which will house
the annual meeting of Montgomery Ward & Co. stockholders.
Their chief business will be to decide whether the $721 million firm
will remain under the control of
command of Louis E. Wolfson.

Polls will be opened in the rear
of the house. Most of the 68,000
stockholders have mailed in their proxies. But those who want to vote in person or cast a ballot
that will supersede a previously
mailed proxy will walk to a parlor
containing eight voting tables.

is "questions and discussions."
But the place on the agenda of this item already has drawn a protest from Wolfson.

He has demanded "free and open discussion before the votes
are cast."

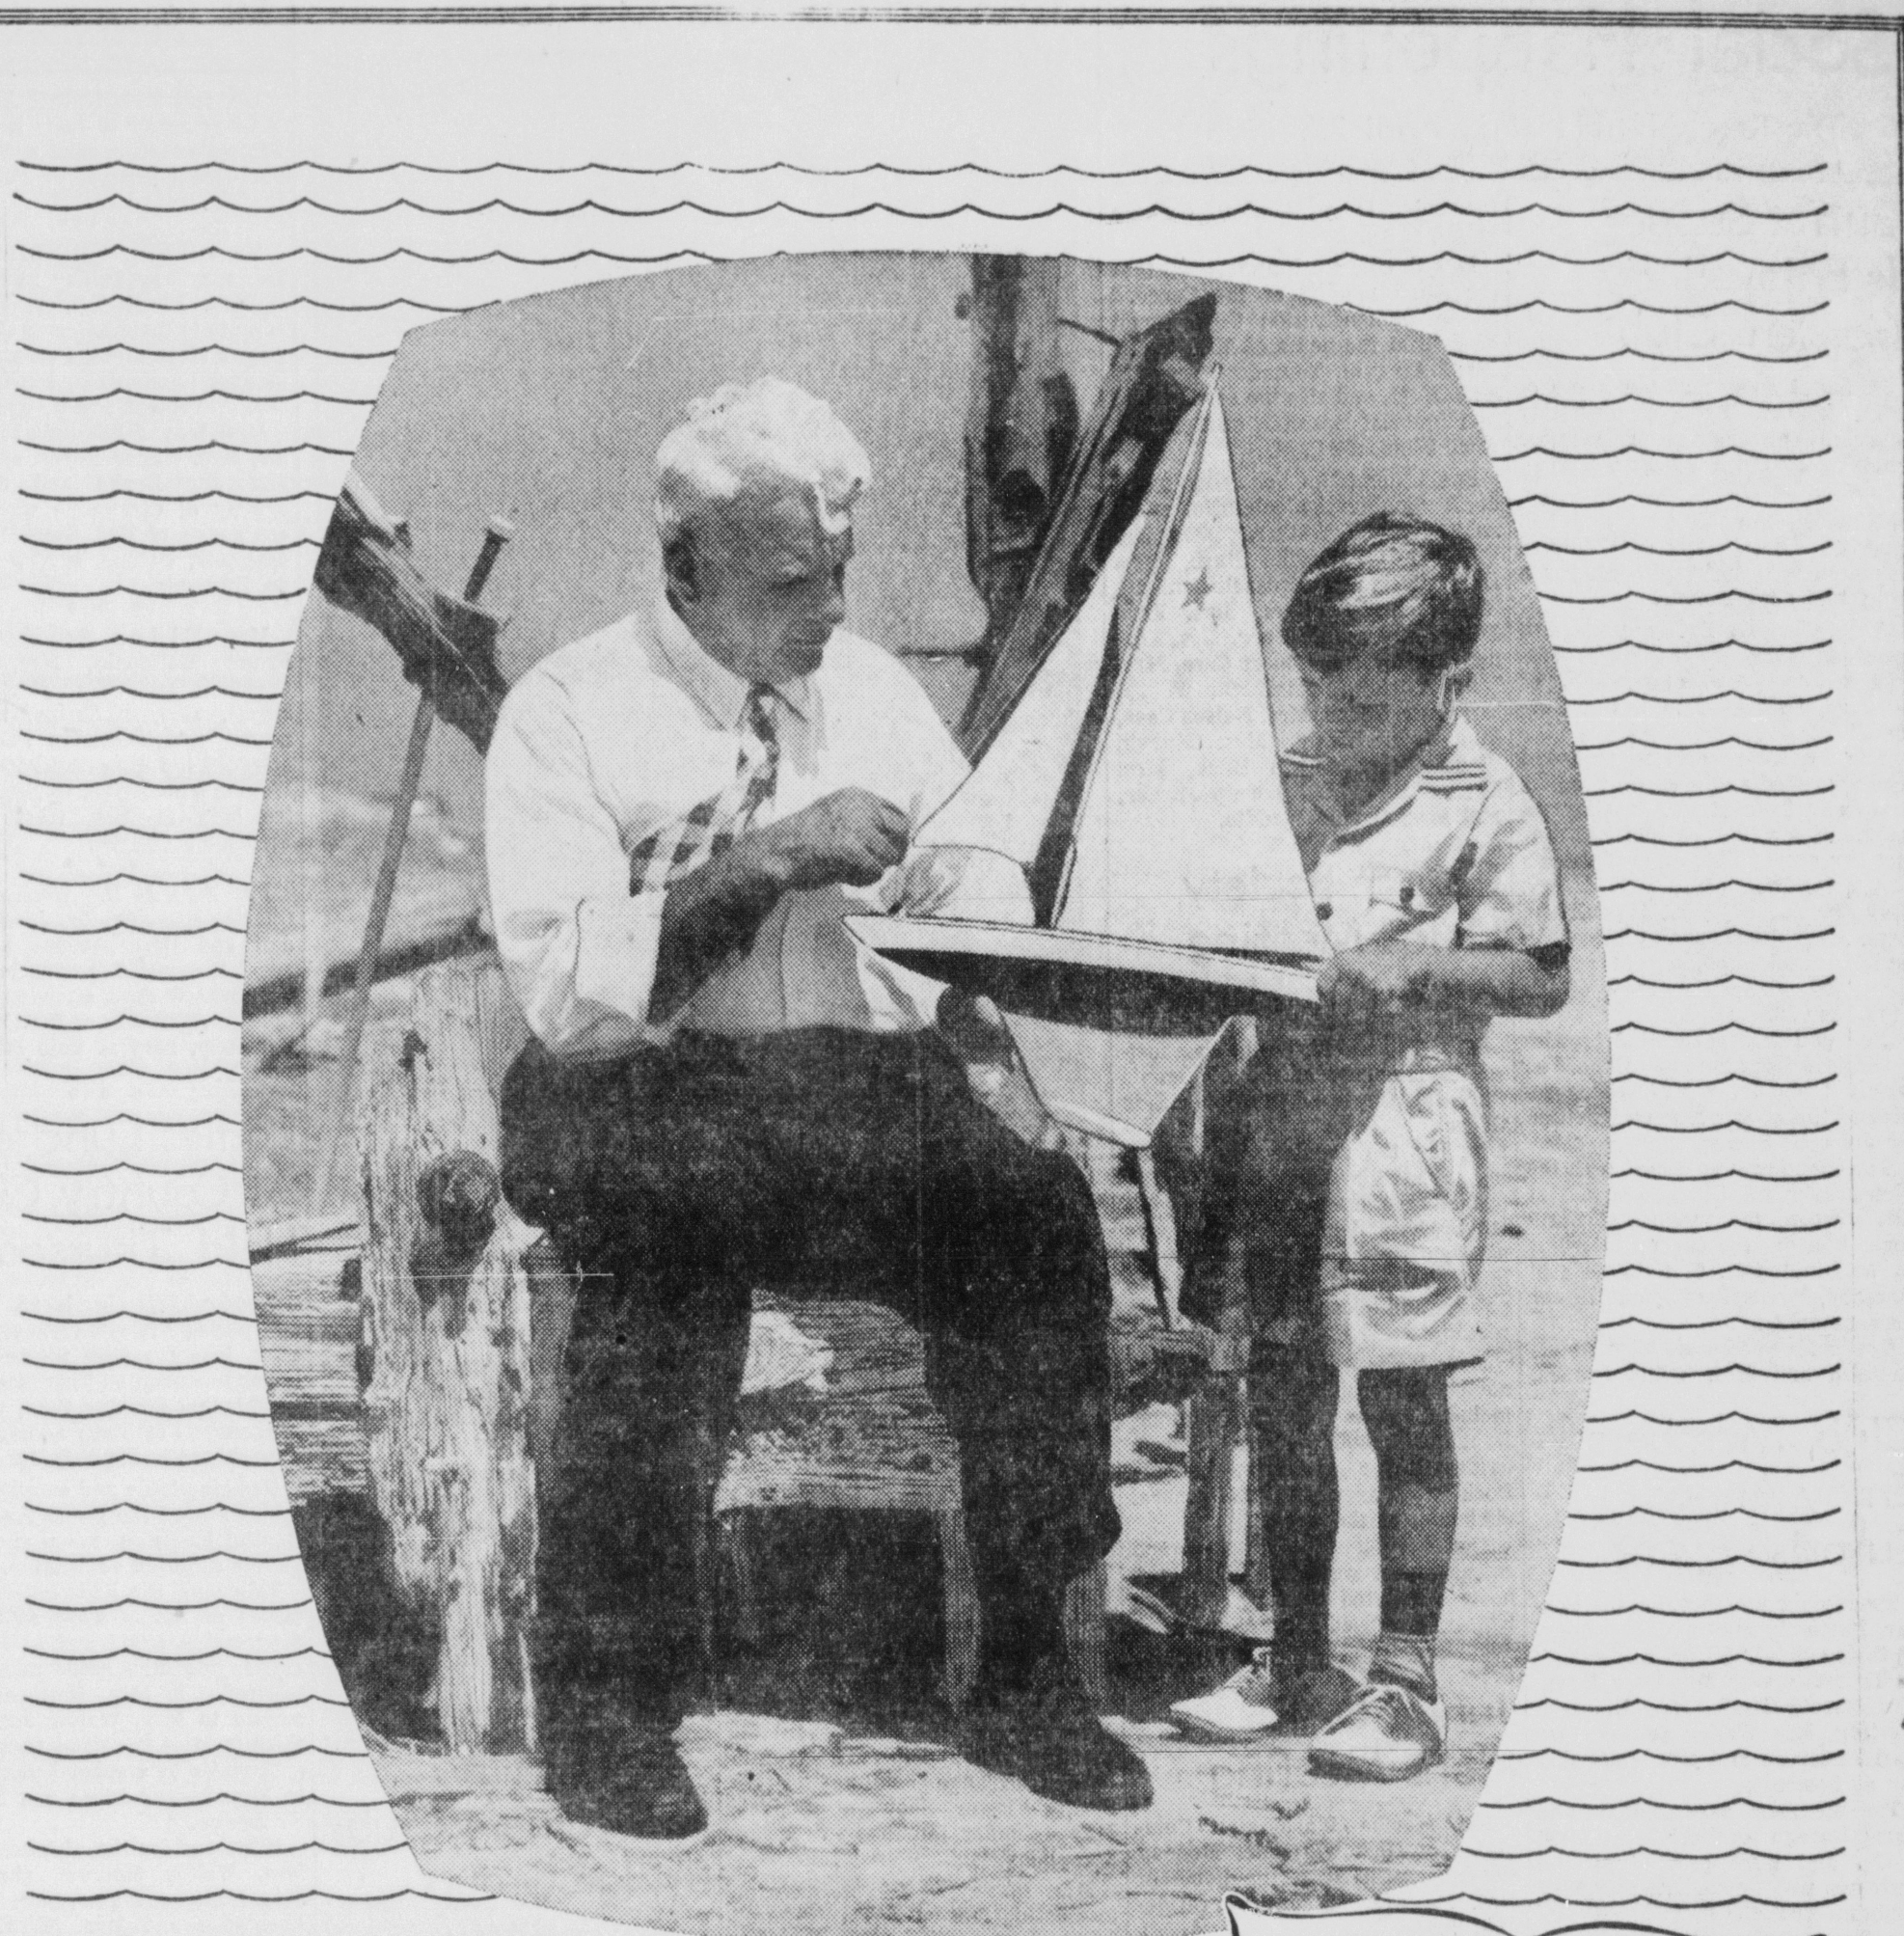

John Barr, Ward vice president
and secretary, rejoined:
"There will be a full opportunity
for asking any questions. No
stockholder will be forced to vote
before he's ready to vote."

At the end of the session, the meeting will be adjourned, probably for three weeks. Barr estimated it would take that long to check and count the ballots.
Representatives of both sides
will watch the proceedings.

dreds of Indian names for U. S.

THE WONDERFUL SHIP

She'll sail with the best of them, because into her fashioning have gone the eager hands of a small boy and the gentle, experienced touch of an old man. Across bright blue water her miniature sails will billow clean and white, and into the eyes of these two will steal a new light of pleasure.

There has been guidance in the making of this boat, the loving guidance of one who has weathered life's storms and gained from them the comfort of experience. And the boy, sensing this experience, is happy in a childlike confidence that this ship... this wonderful ship
... can never sink.

It may be that on some brave voyage the little boat will meet disaster, and this lad will learn that material possessions so seldom last.
He is also learning to find faith in a ship that is unsinkable. That ship is the Church... and it will carry him through calm seas and storms throughout the voyage of life. Every child should learn early to anchor his life to the Church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship.
It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization
can survive. There are four sound reasons why
every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Buffet Supper Is Enjoyed By Garden Club

A buffet supper at the home of Mrs. Reuben French, Thursday evening preceded the regular meeting of the Busy Bee Garden Club.

Nineteen members and two guests were seated at small tables centered with spring flowers for a congenial supper hour.

Mrs. Glen H. Brock, president, presided over the business session and opened with the reading of a poem, "Whoever Makes A Garden."

The usual reports were heard and approved and a card of thanks was read from Mrs. Ada Gault, a member, for flowers sent her during her recent illness.

A committee composed of Mrs. Ray Shoemaker, Mrs. Jess Crago, Mrs. Ancil Creamer and Mrs. John Sheeley was appointed to make plans for an open meeting of the club June 16.

Roll call was responded to with quotations from the book "The Web of Life" and later Mrs. French reviewed the book which was written by John H. Storer.

The meeting was closed with the club prayer and films on scenes at Mt. Vernon, the jungles at Saratoga, Florida, the cherry blossoms at Washington D. C. tulip beds at Hershey, Pennsylvania, and flower arrangements.

Guests included were Miss Maude Routson and Mrs. Willis French.

Club Members Enjoy Annual Surprise Event

Twenty-six members of the Conner Farm Woman's Club, enjoyed their annual "Surprise Meeting" on Thursday with Mrs. Dora Mark, Mrs. Harold Mark, Mrs. Emerson Marting, Mrs. Walter Sollars, Mrs. Earl Anderson and Mrs. Dale Wilson as hostesses.

The members assembled at the Farm Bureau Auditorium at 11:30 A. M. and were greeted by the hostesses who announced that they would motor to the Pickaway Arm's Tea Room for a delicious one o'clock luncheon.

Tables seating the group for a delightful hour were centered with beautiful arrangements of spring flowers and following the luncheon hour Mrs. Dale Wilson, club president, conducted the brief business session, which opened with the repeating of the club creed, led by Mrs. Joe Palmer.

The reports of standing committee were heard and roll call was responded to with plans for the month of April.

Mrs. Orville Bush announced that the April meeting of the Concord Home Demonstration Club would be held at the home of Mrs. Maurice Sollars, on Thursday, April 28 10:30 A. M. and also the sewing date at Memorial Hospital, on Tuesday, April 26 at 1:30 P. M.

In addition to the hostesses, members enjoying the delightful event were: Mrs. Job Burris, Mrs. Joe Palmer, Mrs. Orville Bush, Mrs. Dale Wilson, Mrs. Russell Lanman, Mrs. Maurice Sollars, Mrs. Ford Ervin, Mrs. Heber Deer, Mrs. Kenneth Bush, Mrs. Robert Case, Mrs. Ralph Nisley, Mrs. Edgar Wilson, Mrs. Ada Wilson, Mrs. Nelson Case, Mrs. Jean Nisley, Mrs. Marvin Waddle, Mrs. Edwin Buck, Mrs. Carlton Belt, Mrs. Lorain Morter, and Mrs. Orville Waddle.

Church Society Holds Meeting At Willis Home

Mrs. Thomas N. Willis was hostess to members of the Women's Christian Circle of the South Side Church of Christ, Thursday evening for the regular April meeting. Prayer by Mrs. Guy Brooks, opened meeting and devotions were led by Mrs. John G. Jordan, who used as her theme, "Time" for an interesting talk which included poetry and closed with Scripture reading.

Mrs. Willis, vice president, conducted the business session which included plans for the Mother-Daughter banquet at the church, Friday May 6, and Mrs. Carey Book was appointed as general chairman of the event.

The meeting was adjourned and refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Norman Kinzer, Mrs. Ned Kinzer, and Mrs. John Frederick.

Junior DAR Plans Meeting

The Martha Washington Committee of DAR will meet Monday evening, April 25 at the home of Mrs. Ray French on the Circle-ville Road.

A most interesting program has been planned by the chairman, Mrs. Dwight Duff, and the film "The Years To Come" will be a special feature.

This film is rated one of the best to be released by the U. S. Department of Agriculture on Conservation, in keeping with the theme of the meeting and has been highly recommended by National DAR.

A short business meeting will be presided over by the chairman, Mrs. Willard Bitzer, and election of officers for the coming year will be held.

A discussion on the "May Tour" will be held and plans will be outlined by the committee. Assisting Mrs. French in the hospitalities will be Mrs. J. H. Williams and Mrs. John Leland.

Little Girl One Year Old Today

This darling little girl is Susan Jessica Small, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Small (nee Helen Worrell) of Chula Vista, California.

Garden Club Members Meet With Mrs. Denen

The April meeting of the Old Trails Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. Eugene Denen who had as assisting hostess, Mrs. Debert Dorn and Mrs. Wayne Kelley.

The president, Mrs. Reynold Slaughter Sr. presided over the meeting and appointed a committee to arrange exhibits for the Spring Flower Show at London, May 4, under the theme, "Spring Symphony."

Mrs. Robert L. Waller, gave an interesting talk on "Wild Flowers" in which she pointed out that it is permissible to transplant wild flowers in yards providing place is comparable to that in the wooded areas, and in transplanting wild flowers do not dig promiscuously being careful to get ample clumps to insure growth.

She mentioned the trailing arbutus as the most beautiful woods plant but cannot be transplanted, and fall is the correct time to transplant wild flowers being careful to observe root growth.

No fertilizer is to be used in moving these plants only mulch and since they start growth late in the spring be careful not to disturb the plants early.

She stated that the wild orchid or lady slipper may be started from seed in outside container to insure the freezing and thawing and spoke of wood fern, the growth, and care in transplanting.

In closing Mrs. Waller gave other important instructions for the growth of otherwild flowers.

Mrs. Reynold Slaughter Jr. showed slides from the collection of Mrs. Reuben French, of Jeffersonville which included scenes taken in Ohio of her own lawn and those taken in Florida, Pennsylvania and Detroit, Michigan.

At the close of the meeting the hostesses served punch and the accompanying delicacies.

Newcomers Club Bridge Group Enjoys Party

The bridge group of Newcomers Club met informally at the home of Mrs. Charles Harris who had as her assisting hostess, Mrs. Jack Montgomery.

Two tables of bridge were at play during the afternoon session and at the conclusion of the progressions light refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Members present were Mrs. George Owen, Mrs. Hugh Hilty, Mrs. Jerry Grundies, Mrs. La Verne Haugan, Mrs. Harold Allen, and Mrs. James Rainey.

U. S. margarine production totaled 426 million pounds in 1942 and rose to about 1,364 million pounds in 1954.

Einstein Credited 'Faith' For Helping In Successes

Editor's Note: Following is the last in a series of three articles giving the background of the late Dr. Albert Einstein, world-acclaimed scientist.

By FRANCES LEWINE
PRINCETON, N. J. (AP)—Albert Einstein, intellectual adventurer, said he had a "kind of faith that helped me through my whole life—not to become hopeless in the great difficulties of investigation."

This man, who died Monday, overturned the most traditional notions of physics.

He was the son of middle class South German Jews. From his father, Hermann, an electrical engineer, he first learned about science. His mother, Pauline Koch, gave him his love of music and art.

Einstein didn't speak a word until he was 3 years old, but by the time he was 14 he had taught himself algebra, analytical geometry and integral and differential calculus. None of this had yet been taught him in school. He was also deeply interested in philosophy.

He intended to follow his father's profession and took entrance examinations at the Polytechnic Academy in Zurich, Switzerland. His knowledge and understanding of mathematics and physics amazed his professors.

The young scientist, however, was mainly occupied with physics. He said he early learned to study only what led to the fundamentals and "to turn aside from everything else."

Einstein, who always was passionately proud of his Jewish cultural and spiritual traditions, was married in 1903 at the age of 24 to a Serbian Catholic, Mileva Marić, whom he met in a mathematics class. They had two sons, Hans Albert, born in 1904, and Edward, born in 1909.

Hans became a professor of hydraulics at the University of California and a consultant on soil erosion for the U. S. government. Edward remained in Zurich, and little was known here of his activities.

Einstein's first marriage ended in divorce.

When he went to Berlin in 1914 to accept a post as professor of the Prussian Academy of Science, he met again his first cousin, Elsa Einstein, with whom he had grown up. They were married a year later.

Also divorced, she had two daughters.

At the time of his second marriage, Einstein had achieved great stature in the scientific world and was beginning to feel the pressure of public acclaim.

Elsa Einstein became her husband's buffer against the world.

A woman of culture, she also was practical and had sound business judgment. She took over the management of all of her husband's affairs and there was a saying in Berlin that:

"If you would know Herr Albert, first know Frau Elsa."

Einstein, who cared little for money and rejected offers of large sums for articles and testimonials, was perfectly satisfied to let his wife guide his personal and private life.

"They make such demands on his time," she once said, "he must have peace in which to think."

She died in Princeton in 1936 at the age of 58.

But, with all his love of seclusion, he was often unpredictable. People who didn't know him expected him to be some sort of super-being. They were astonished on one occasion when he visited downtown Princeton. A small group gathered to watch. He bought a newspaper, then went into a 5 and 10 cent store for a comb and a cake of soap.

And there was the occasion when one got by the front door. A 14-year-old pupil at Princeton Country Day School, he was so puzzled over an examination problem he decided to ask Einstein for a solution.

The boy said he thought that two consecutive odd numbers, the difference of whose squares is 56, may be negative as well as positive.

"You're right," said Einstein. It is not recorded that anyone challenged the young scholar's answer at school the next day. It would have been interesting if someone had.

For, in his way, he had the same last word which for years guided top ranking scientists the world over.

It is not recorded that anyone challenged the young scholar's answer at school the next day. It would have been interesting if someone had.

But, with all his love of seclusion, he was often unpredictable. People who didn't know him expected him to be some sort of super-being. They were astonished on one occasion when he visited downtown Princeton. A small group gathered to watch. He bought a newspaper, then went into a 5 and 10 cent store for a comb and a cake of soap.

Apparently he read all his mail and answered a good deal of it himself, including requests from puzzled high school students.

And there was the occasion when one got by the front door. A 14-year-old pupil at Princeton Country Day School, he was so puzzled over an examination problem he decided to ask Einstein for a solution.

The boy said he thought that two consecutive odd numbers, the difference of whose squares is 56, may be negative as well as positive.

"You're right," said Einstein. It is not recorded that anyone challenged the young scholar's answer at school the next day. It would have been interesting if someone had.

TODAY'S GARDEN-GRAPH

Give Potatoes Helping Hand

Distributed by Central Press Association

WHETHER you plant potatoes by the hill or trench method, give them a hand in getting started. Care and cultivation are essential for a good crop.

Start with good seed potatoes. Discard seed potatoes which have too many sprouts as shown in the accompanying Garden-Graph. The competition of too many shoots will affect the yield. Also discard miniature tubers, such as the "runt" illustrated, for such potatoes when used for seed purposes cut yield.

If you plant potatoes in a trench the soil will be slightly rigid over the furrow. When it shows signs of crusting after rainfall, loosen it with an iron rake. The loosened soil enables the young sprouts to get their heads above the ground without too much of a struggle.

If potatoes are planted in hills, which means in holes scooped out of the ground, the seed pieces will have been covered with about an inch and a half of soil. When the sprouts come through the ground, pull the soil to them with a hoe until the ground is more or less level.

Keep the soil around potatoes well cultivated. This keeps weeds under control. Cultivation, however, should be shallow to avoid cutting roots near the surface. As the plants mature soil should be hoed up around them to hold them upright and to protect the tubers from the sun. Any tubers exposed above the ground should be covered with soil immediately. Exposure to sunlight turns the tubers green and renders them unfit for eating purposes.

Stormy Waters Seen Ahead For Ike's Foreign Aid Bid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's foreign aid program ran into stormy waters in Congress Thursday with Sens. Byrd (D-Va.) and Potter (R-Mich.) demanding elimination of direct economic assistance to U. S. Allies.

Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont.) proposed that the President's request for $3,530,000,000 in military and economic help for friendly nations be sliced below $3 billion.

The vigor of objections and some obvious lack of enthusiasm by some administration supporters appeared to spell trouble for the program Eisenhower said would be directed primarily at Asia.

Chairmen George (D-Ga.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and Richards (D-SC) of the House Foreign Affairs Committee

showed disinclination to tackle the problem immediately. Each said he would let the other House act on it first.

Richards' proposal to delay final consideration of the measure until the Senate acts was supported by Reps. Lawrence H. Smith (R-Wis.) and Gordon (D-Ill.), members of the House committee.

GORDON SAID he thinks the Senate will make "deep cuts" and he wants to avoid a "wide gap" between House and Senate bills.

But Rep. Morano (R-Conn.), another committee member, said "we have an obligation to consider this measure, and we should go ahead with it, without waiting for the Senate."

Byrd, who long has urged government economy, said he is "opposed to starting another large program in Asia."

"In my judgment, the time has come to eliminate all economic aid to other countries except for a reasonable amount of 'point four' technical assistance to underdeveloped countries," he said.

"The administration had a carry-over of $10,900,000,000 in foreign aid funds at the start of this calendar year. Of this, $1,800,000,000 represented direct economic aid, exclusive of defense support funds.

"With such a large carryover, there is no sense in authorizing more direct economic aid."

In a message to Congress yesterday, Eisenhower asked for $1,717,000,000 in military assistance. He proposed $712½ million in economic aid, plus $1 billion in defense support funds. Of the economic aid funds, $172 million would finance continuance of the technical aid program.

River Pollution Progress Expected

CINCINNATI (AP) — W. W. Jennings, chairman of the Ohio River Valley Water Sanitation Commission, today forecast faster progress in the control of industrial pollution in the Ohio River.

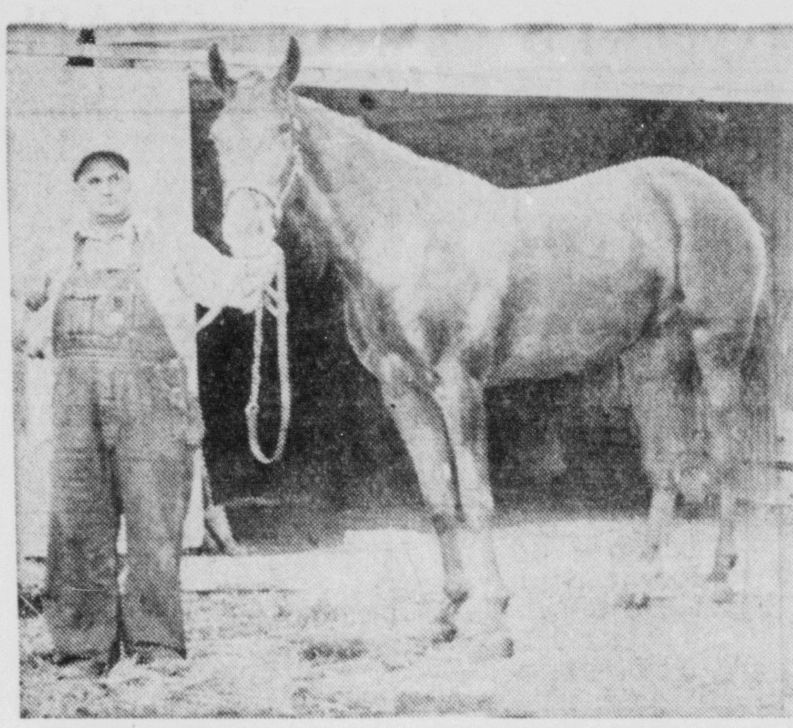

His prediction was contained in a report to the governors of the eight states which are parties to the organization.

Previously the commission has worked out agreements on curbing wastes poured into the waterway by municipalities. Now the commission, Jennings said, has after two years of study with 150 industry-action committees, set up policies and procedures for restricting industrial wastes, not only poured directly into the Ohio, but into its tributaries as well. As major tributary is the Scioto River which drains South Central Ohio.

Here's How Ohio Voted On Pay Hike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio congressmen yesterday voted this way on an amendment to provide an 8.2 per cent pay raise for postal workers passed by the House, 222-189:

Democrats for: Ashley, Feighan, Hays, Kirwan, Polk, Vanik. Republicans against: Ayres, Baumhart, Betts, Frances Bolton, Bow, Brown, Cleveland, Henderson, Hess, Jenkins, McGregor, Minshall, Schenck, Scherer and Vorys. Absent or not voting: Oliver Bolton and McCulloch.

Pondering Jurors Must Stay Sober

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — The Oklahoma Criminal Court of Appeals has ruled that liquor drinking by jurors during a trial recess is not grounds for a mistrial unless they get drunk.

However, the court held that any drinking after the case has been submitted to jurors is grounds for a mistrial.

Bricker Said In Line As '56 Candidate

DOVER (AP) — The Dover Daily Reporter said today it has learned that a quiet move is underway to make Sen. John W. Bricker, (R-Ohio) this state's favorite son candidate for the 1956 presidential nomination.

The paper said Bricker will be selected because Ohio's primary law requires that candidates for delegate to the national convention declare their preference for the presidential nomination.

They must submit an affidavit from the man they propose to support for president, in which that man must approve the filing of delegate candidates in his behalf. These affidavits of presidential convention delegates must be filed not later than Feb. 8, 1956.

The newspaper said that if President Eisenhower becomes a candidate for renomination, he is not likely to make a public avowal of his candidacy that early in the year and risk a primary fight with any small dissident group which might wish to force such a battle upon the President.

The newspaper's story described the prospective selection of Bricker as Ohio's GOP "favorite son" as a "holding and hedging" maneuver which would give Bricker a hold on the delegation to be released in the anticipated "Eisenhower draft" at the convention. It pointed out that if Eisenhower, for any reason, became unavailable for the nomination, Bricker could then become a front-running candidate.

Ban On Car Horns Said Safety Boon

LOS ANGELES (AP) — This city's drivers have been told that if they'd shut up, they'd live longer. A Memphis physician, Dr. Duane Carr, estimated that Los Angeles traffic deaths could be cut 50 per cent by outlawing the sounding of auto horns.

Addressing a one-day symposium on clinical medicine and surgery yesterday, Dr. Carr added: "In Memphis we passed such an ordinance some 15 years ago, and our traffic accidents dropped 50 per cent in no time. The lack of horns means that we have to look where we are going, and not pass another car unless we know it is safe."

Trophies, Glory for Winners Of Matinee Races Here Sunday

Eight Dashes Are To Start At 1:30 P. M.

The harness horse racing season will get under way here Sunday afternoon at the Fairground track when a score or more of trotters and pacers will match strides in the Matinee program sponsored by the Washington C. H. Lions Club.

Facing Hank Butler's mobile starting gate will be the horses that have been in training here and driving them will be the owners and trainers well known to followers of the sport here.

There won't be any cash involved, there will be no purses—but there will be the trophies and the keen friendly rivalry that always builds up in an atmosphere of close association among horsemen.

This will be the third Matinee race card sponsored by the Lions club here and the horsemen admit with broad grins that many of them raced harder at these affairs than they did when the cash was down. One of them said: "It seems to be personal. . . the boys seem to want to prove themselves and their horses in front of their friends and against their fellow owners and drivers."

THERE WILL be four races of two dashes each and handsome trophies have been put up for the winner of each dash—eight separate races and eight trophies. The races will come at 15-minute intervals.

The races will be conducted under the rules and regulations of the United States Trotting Association and under the supervision of state-licensed officials.

The trainers have drawn for post positions for the first dash of the race, but post positions for second dash will be determined by the finish in the first dash—the winner of the first dash get the pole, or inside, position for the second dash, the horse that finishes second in the first dash get the position second from rail, or just outside the pole horse, for the second dash. . . and so on.

Post time for the first race is 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Proceeds from the afternoon's racing are to go into the Lion club's sight saving fund.

Entries, drivers and post positions for the first dashes are:

St. Paul Setting Pace In AA Race

By The Associated Press
St. Paul edged back into the American Association lead as Eastern clubs began a swing through the west last night.

The Saints beat Charleston, 8-7, and displaced Toledo and Omaha, which dropped back into a second place tie. Omaha fell victim to a three-hitter by Al Curtis and bowed to Louisville, 7-1. Minneapolis blasted Toledo, 5-4. Denver, after losing six of seven starts, rebounded before a home crowd of 13,840 to whale Indianapolis, 10-1.

Ohio AAU Boxing Meet Awaited

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio's best amateur boxers square off tonight in

HERE ARE THE KINDS OF TROPHIES that will be presented to the winners at Sunday afternoon's Matinee harness racing program at the Fairground here. Sponsored by the Lions Club, proceeds go into the club's sight-saving fund. This handsome silver tray and two heavy silver pitchers were picked at random from among the eight trophies put up by firms and individuals as typical of the awards that are to be made. ## 25 Entrants Due For Each Ohio Fair Race

COLUMBUS—An average of 25 horses per race has been achieved for the Ohio State Fair's 1955 harness racing stakes program, speed superintendent Frank Foster of Marion announced today.

With the racing schedule curtailed by a day, the number of entries is fewer than last year, according to Foster, but the average per event is approximately the same. The 1955 program will get underway Saturday, Aug. 27, and continue through the following Thursday.

Total number of entries in the 14 early closing events is $50. Six overnight races round out the five-day card. Four races will be programmed daily with each going a minimum of two heats.

Feature of the week will be the $5,000 Governor's Cup for 3-year-old trotters which is slated to be raced Sept. 1. The event marks the high water mark of the Ohio harness racing season and 32 sophomore trotters, two more than last year, have been named.

Top entry was in the $2,000 25 class pace scheduled for Monday, Aug. 29, with 38 sidewheelers named. The $3,000 Hilliards Raceway 2-year-old pace (Sept. 1) drew 37 nominations and the $3,000 Houghton Sulky Co. 2-year-old trot (Aug. 31) 33. Twenty-seven 3-year-old pacers were nominated for the $4,000 Director of Agriculture Pace on Aug. 31.

The Saturday opening will consist of four fully events with $2,000 races for each of the two and 3-year-old gait. In all, 103 fillies were nominated.

Serafin Tops Virginia Tourney

VIRGINIA BEACH, Va. (AP)—Is John Serafin of Pittston, Pa., just a flash in the pan or has the 25-year-old son of a famous professional finally found his game to become a star on big time golf's tournament trail?

The golf circuit's veterans and younger aces who already have established themselves as stars were asking this question today as play moved into the second round in the $17,500 Virginia Beach open Tournament.

Serafin, who's played very little on the circuit, shot a five-under-par 64 yesterday to finish in a deadlock with veteran Ted Kroll of Utica, N. Y., for the first round lead in the 72-hole test over the 6,065-yard, par 69.

Nobody was more surprised about his performance than Serafin, whose father, Felix, has long been linked with big time golf.

Joe Pignatino caught for Tommy Holmes at Elmira, N. Y., last season and this year is with Holmes at Fort Worth in the Texas League.

Indians Point For First Place

CLEVELAND (AP)—Manager Al Lopez, who says he is "not worried" about the pounding the lowly Kansas City Athletics gave the famed Cleveland pitching staff, hopes the Indians can take over first place during a 16-game home stand that starts tonight against Detroit.

The Athletics, who finished last in 1954, scored 17 runs in their first two games against the Tribe this season. Cleveland won one and lost the other.

Lopez said he would pitch Bob Lemon tonight against the Tigers and follow him with Mike Garcia and Herb Score.

Pastrano Set To Test Troy

CHICAGO (AP)—Willie Pastrano, just a growing boy, and Willie Troy, a power swinger with 23 knockouts in 30 victories, match shots tonight in a scheduled 10 round bout in Chicago Stadium.

Pastrano, a product of New Orleans who now is boxing out of Miami Beach, Fla., will be making his second national television appearance. In his debut before the cameras a month ago, he disposed of Al Andrews.

Willie's middleweight test against New Yorker Troy will be viewed over NBC at 10 p. m.

Ohio Fishing This Weekend To Be 'Poor'

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio fishing prospects in the coming weekend will be poor because of recent general rains, says the Ohio Division of Wildlife.

Here's the rundown on general conditions by districts:

NORTHWESTERN Lakes and streams generally cloudy, but bass, crappies and catfish are hitting in East Harbor. Some bass, crappies and catfish are hitting Lake St. Marys. Few bass and bluegills are being taken from Oxbow Lake in Defiance County.

SOUTHEASTERN—Good fishing has been reported, despite generally roily lakes and streams. Fair fishing may be expected at Burr Oak Lake in Athens County, but roily and muddy conditions are expected generally over the weekend.

CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN—The Olentangy, Big and Little Walnut, Blacklick and Alum Creek in Franklin County have been producing well. Rains have dimmed the outlook for such spots as Deer Creek and Little Darby in Madison County and Sunfish Creek and Indian Gyan Creek. Fair catches may be had in parts of Buckeye Lake and Delaware Reservoir.

SOUTHWESTERN—Better than average catches of bass, crappies, catfish and bluegills have been reported from Grant Lake in Brown County, Stonelick Lake in Clermont County, Cowan Lake in Clinton County, Indian Lake in Logan County, and Decker, Swift Run and Echo Lakes in Miami County. Outlook for the weekend is fair.

Eight of the nine starting players on Brandeis University's baseball team are football lettermen.

Janowicz Handed Baseball Blackball

NEW YORK (AP)—The baseball commissioner's office has put on the "disqualified list" Vic Janowicz, former Ohio State All-American back who failed to report for spring training this year with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Flower - Plants - Seeds 33

It is now possible for you to increase your soybean yields. Clark soybeans make this possible. Official
tests were conducted by Mr. A. H. Probst, U. S. Regional Soybean Laboratory, U. S. D. A. and Agronomy
Dept., Purdue University. Yield comparisons from 1948 through 1954 including 19 different tests in 4
locations, Clark compared to Lincoln, the Clark
yielded 46.8 bushels per acre. The Lincoln yielded 39-5 bushels per acre. The Clark stand better than Lincolns and are very easily combined.

The Clark seed I have to offer is certified by the Ohio
Seed Improvement Association. For further information, call 41501 or write Frank B. Sollars, R. F. D. 2,

Pupils Present Big Program at Bloomingburg

PTO Heads Picked
During Preceding
Business Meeting

Bloomingburg School's beginning band and the youngsters of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades provided the program at the meeting of the PTO Thursday night, following a short business meeting that featured the selection of officers for the next year.

The new president is John Cannon; vice president, Lewis Redd; secretary, treasurer, Mrs. L. P. Noble and news reporter, Mrs. Donald Mossbarger. The outgoing president, Mrs. Virgil Souther, thanked everyone for the cooperation she received during her term in office.

Opening with the playing of the budding handsomen, the program went on through a series of group songs, solo dances, nonsense rhymes, fun songs and singing games by members of each grade.

The beginning band, directed by Mrs. Paul Elliott, the music teacher, played six numbers. A saxophone trio, made up of Judy McFadden, Onda McCoy and Jonathan Schlichter, played a part of selections and Larry Huff played a trombone solo.

The fourth graders sang five group songs. One of them, "Cloud," featured a dance interpretation by Penny Noble. The dance and game section by the fourth graders featured five numbers, including a dance duet by Patricia Cannon and Charles McCoy. Mrs. Margaret McCoy is the fourth grade teacher.

The fifth graders presented five songs, one of them with a narration by Dale Mickle, and five numbers in the variety section, including a tap dance by Judy McFadden. Mrs. G. B. Vance teaches the sixth grade.

Members of the band and their instruments: — Donna Chrisman, Linda Parrett, Lorraine Smith, Sandra Evans, Don Grimm and Kathy Wightman. — Trombone — Larry Huff. — Drums — Wayne Cowdery and Larry Oberschlake. — Trumpets and cornets — Bill Huff, Shirley Robinson, Jim Riley, Michael Foster, Butch Conaway and Joyce Cannon.

Upright bass — Forrest May. — Alto saxophone — Judy McFadden and Onda McCoy. — Tenor saxophone — Jonathan Schlichter. — Bells — Cammy Carman. — Piano — Kay Heistand and Betty Miller.

Grade 4 pupils in the program were: — Curtis Bayse, Linda Brill, Charles Buck, Marilyn Butler, Patricia Davis, Scott Carman, Larry Chrisman, David Craig, Gerald Downs, Thomas Downs, Dick Evans. — Kimball, Wayne Locke, Dick Myers, Leo McCarthy, Charles McCoy, Janet McCoy, Larry Morris, Penny Noble, Beverly Owens, Joe Palmers, Joann Paul, Jane Phillips. — Gerald Raypole, Richard Redd, Darrell Roberts, Delbert Strahler, Clair Strahler, Larry Suttles, Jean Taylor, Carl Weaver, Lynda Welsh and Joann Wightman.

Fifth graders taking part were: — Ruth Leach, Marjorie Dawes, Patty Riley, Lynn Welsh, Phillip Seymour, Lonnie Ayers, Donnie Craig, Gary Smith, Jimmy Butcher, Gary Butcher, Billy Oyer, Joyce Cannon, Alice Craig, Ann Evans, Erma Grimm, David Cook, Rebecca Hathcock, Patty Redden, Dean Mossbarger, Phyllis Leach, Dale Mickle, Vivian Harris, Romona Brill, Gloria Mongold, Nancy Barton, Darlene Phillips.

Alice May, Grace Friend, Elizabeth Coil, Otha Knisley, James Downs, Douglas Cunningham, Edna Mae Wightman, Butch Conaway, Charles Wallace and Dwight Lucas.

The boys and girls of the sixth grade were: — Harold Michael, Bill Harris, Rosella Trenner, Don Grim, Leslie VanDyne, Rose Ann Knisley, Carolyn Seymour, Kathy Wightman, Joan Harris, McKinley Cruise, Faye Rosell, Richard Harris.

Sue Massie, Thomas Boldman, Margaret Harris, Roger Harris, Nancy Downs, Bobby Vincent, Delbert Souther, Robert Chisman, Carol Ann Boyd, John Butcher, Yvonne Penwell, Linda Parrett.

City Manager James F. Parkinson has called for bids on 10,000 gallons of gasoline for use in city vehicles.

The bids are to be opened May 6 and contract awarded to the lowest and best bidder.

The gasoline is for use in all motor vehicles owned by the city, and should last the better part of a year.

Two Men Sent To Penitentiary

One Violated Parole
Eight Years Ago

Judge John P. Case Friday morning sentenced two men to the Ohio Penitentiary for one to 20 years. One of them had been sought for years for violating his probation in common pleas court.

Both men were taken to the big stone walled prison in Columbus, Friday afternoon by Sheriff Orland Hays and Deputy Sheriff Don Thompson.

The man who had violated his probation was Harold Hunt, 39, who was placed on probation by Judge H. M. Rankin in 1947 on a charge of selling mortgaged property owned by W. P. Noble of Bloomingburg.

Hunt proceeded to violate the terms of his probation so that in 1950 a warrant was issued for his arrest and he had been sought since that time.

Recently Sheriff Hays learned that Hunt was in Columbus, so he had him arrested, and brought him back here this week and placed him in the county jail to await a hearing.

The other man who drew a penitentiary term was Everett Cartwright, 39, of Sabina, who was indicted recently for operating an automobile owned by George C. Gray, without the owner's consent. Cartwright entered a plea of guilty to the charge, and was sentenced accordingly.

Final Tributes Paid Mrs. Charles Lucas

Funeral services for Mrs. Charles Lucas were conducted at 2 P. M. Thursday in the Parrett Funeral Home by Rev. Don McMillin, pastor of the First Christian Church, and Rev. Eugene Frazer, pastor of the Methodist Church at Good Hope.

Rev. Frazer read passages from the Bible, the hymn, "Blessed Assurance," offered prayer, recited the poem, "Here and There" and read an obituary.

Rev. McMillin quoted the Scripture, delivered the funeral sermon on the text "Way of the Cross," and offered the closing prayer.

The pallbearers, who also took care of the many floral remembrances, were Jack Lucas, Emery Lucas, Frank Ater, Howard Young, Paul Crago and William Rammel. Interment was in the Good Hope Cemetery.

Two Red Light Runners Nabbed

The only arrests made by the police over Thursday were two red light runners, both of whom posted bond for appearance in municipal court.

Staunton PTO Elects Officers

Put On By Students

Members of the Staunton PTO selected new officers, set up four committees and watched a program put on by the first and second graders at their April meeting, held Thursday evening at the school.

The nominating committee presented a slate of officers for the coming year. Mrs. Norman Armbrust will be the president; Mrs. Kenneth Bush, vice president; Mrs. Ray Jennings, secretary, Charles Ellis, treasurer.

Kenneth Bush reported that the group's main project for the year had been successfully concluded, as the project committee has ordered a new sound movie projector. He added that the members of Selden Grange had agreed to buy a screen for use with the projector.

The meeting was led by Mrs. Delbert Kimmey. As outgoing president, she thanked all the parents and teachers for their cooperation during her term of office.

A committee was set up to plan this year's edition of the annual school picnic, slated for May 25. Mr. and Mrs. Mose Wilson will head the committee. Other members are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Vince, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Glass and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Pierce.

The PTO will furnish ice cream for the youngsters at the picnic, as well as planning games for the day. Members of a committee to plan the recreation are Mrs. Ray Jennings, Mrs. Norman Armbrust and Mrs. Marion Waddle.

MRS. ARMBRUST, the new president, named a pair of committees to serve during the coming year. To work on the ways and means committee are Mr. and Mrs. Marion Waddle, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dean and Mr. and Mrs. Ottis Smith. Members of the project committee will be George Groh, Mrs. Jane Riley, Mrs. Edith Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William Summers and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Self.

Donations of meat and eggs for the school lunch program were made by Charles Ellis, J. O. Wilson, Mrs. Alfred Vinion, Miss Araba Roush and Mrs. Orville Bush.

At the opening of the program, Mrs. Phyllis Richards of the Health Department explained plans for administering the Salk polio vaccine and urged all parents of first and second graders to give permission for their children to receive the vaccine free of charge. Staunton schoolchildren will go to Good Hope for their shots, she said.

The final part of the program consisted of a variety show put on by the first and second graders, directed by their teacher, Mrs. Jane Riley.

Shirley Kimmey opened the show with a piano solo. Karen Beverly and Loretta Ellis each read poems. The entire group sang three songs, "Good Morning, Sky," "Daffodil" and "It's Spring," under the direction of Mrs. Helen Huff, the music teacher.

The program closed with a choral reading of "The Popcorn Song" and "Tippy-Tippy-Toe."

Refreshments were served by Mr. FEE IS $3

JACKSON — Jackson County physicians have agreed on a fee of $3. for Salk polio shots for children who do not receive free injections.
